"In the beginning God created..."

This is a saying we have all come across at some time or another. While this principle is good to know, we should realize that His creation continues each day we live. It is found in plants, trees, animals and most importantly,in other people.

In bringing you this work from the imagination of Mark Twain, the cast, crew, and I hope that we can share a little of his insight into the true love that existed between our"common parents."

Each one of us sees love shared in a similar manner in many of the people we know. Parents, friends, relatives and even those we do not understand are capable of the emotion of the sort shared by Adam and Eve because today---as in the beginning---God creates.

Enjoy,
Tim
