ORDER OF EXERCISES

PROCESSIONAL

America, the Beautiful

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.

SAINT IGNATIUS LOYOLA

by Thomas Loya, 1991
from the collection of John Carroll University

This icon was painted to mark the 500th anniversary this year of the birth of Saint Ignatius, and the 450th anniversary of the beginning of this school year of the founding of the Society of Jesus. The Saint is depicted according to the formalities of iconography: wisdom lines on his forehead, the long slender nose of nobility, ascetic cheeks, and the large ears and small mouth of those who listen more than they talk. He points to the book of the Spiritual Exercises that contains the essence of his spirituality. Above him are three of the vows that Jesuits take, below is their motto: For the Greater Glory of God. To the left is depicted the wounding and conversion of Ignatius in 1521, and the founding of the Jesuits and their approval by Pope Paul III in 1540. The first picture is modeled after that of the Jesuit Brother Pozzo in the Church of St. Ignatius in Rome; St. Peter is included, for the vigil of his feast was a special moment in the recovery and conversion of Ignatius. Br. Pozzo's painting is included in Carroll's Jesuit Gallery. On the right, John Carroll's Grasselli Tower symbolizes Jesuit schools, and the globe Jesuit missions, both aspects of the Ignatian apostolic spirit.

Icons feature prominently in the liturgy of the Eastern rites. The president of the University is bi-ritual, celebrating the liturgy in the rite of the Byzantine Catholic Church as well as in the Latin rite; hence, his special interest in icons.
