John Carroll University

*I*N the better than half century existence of John Carroll University many have been the heroes who have risen to acclaim her greatness. Many more, known only to the records, have formed the groundwork upon which these heroes might stand. To the athletes of the gridiron, hailed and unsung, who have contributed by their sportsmanship and ability to the glory of Carroll in years long gone, and to those who will play their part this season and in years to come, in still further propagating the name of John Carroll, this program is dedicated.
