MARGHERITA BARBERA (Shelby)

Margie is a senior majoring in Sociology and minoring in English. After graduation in May, she plans on pursuing a career in social work. Margie has appeared on the Carroll stage in "The Good Doctor" and more recently as Rheba in last semester's production of "You Can't Take It With You."

KRISTY BRACK (Tammy)

Kristy has worked on several productions, but "Shooting Stars" is the first one she has acted in. A junior, majoring in Psychology, Kristy plans to go to graduate school and then work as a drug abuse counselor.

JENNIFER COOK (Butch)

Jennifer is a junior majoring in Psychology. Her past theatre appearances here at JCU include the parts of Flora van Huysen in "The Matchmaker" and Penelope Sycamore in "You Can't Take It With You." Jennifer is enjoying the change involved in playing anything other than an eccentric older woman. Future plans include graduate school, and hopefully, time to continue acting as a hobby.

JOHN "DEMSH" DEMSHER (Cassius)

Demsh is a senior who is enjoying his last year at Carroll immensely. He has appeared in "Inherit The Wind" and "You Can't Take It With You" here. He would like to mention that being the only male in the cast of "Shooting Stars" was "nice."

THERESE LANGENDERFER (Wilma)

Therese is a junior working on a major in Psychology and a minor in Communications. She is not new to the Carroll stage, as she has appeared in previous productions here such as, "Dear World" and "Fiddler On The Roof." She has also been in numerous high school and summer stock productions.

GILLIAN MILLER (Birdie)

Gillian is a senior majoring in Communication and minoring in Marketing. Both areas of study will no doubt be very helpful as she pursues a career in Public Relations after graduation. While this is Gillian's first show at Carroll, she was involved with productions at her high school.

KATHLEEN REICHART (Charlene)

This is Kathleen's fifteenth production, and her fourth one at John Carroll. She is a senior double majoring in English and Communications. After graduation, Kathleen plans to work in her hometown of Chicago, which she considers to be the greatest city in the world, and continue her involvement in the theatre in some way.

LUCIA WASSERBAUER (Gaye)

Lucia has been working in school and community theatre for the past eleven years. She was seen last semester in JCU's production of "You Can't Take It With You" as Olga Katrina. She is a senior majoring in Communications and hopes to find success in a career in the theatre.

CONNIE BROWN (Stage Manager)

Connie is a junior Communications major. She has been around theatre all her life, but acted for her first time last semester as Alice in "You Can't Take It With You." She is primarily a "techie" and likes to see the pieces fit the whole. This is her first time stage managing and has loved working with Harper and the lovely, talented cast of "Shooting Stars."
