John Carroll University Baccalaureate Mass • May 28, 1988

The present Chapel of Saint Francis, which was dedicated by Bishop Anthony Pilla on December 10, 1987, stands on footings intended for the "Bishop's Chapel," on the new campus, in 1935. Cut limestone was ordered for that chapel. It was never completed, and the limestone was lost, destroyed, buried. During excavations for the recreation complex, two stones came to light. They represent Augustine of Hippo, Hildegarde of Bingen, Thomas Aquinas, Catherine of Siena, Ignatius of Loyola, and Pope Pius XI (the pope reigning when John Carroll's new campus was being prepared).

These six survived from the dreams and the stones of fifty years ago. They were learners and teachers; they were men and women; they were clerical, religious, and lay; they took learning seriously, and were familiar with God in prayer. From their new eminence in the atrium, may they survey and bless the comings and goings of their sons and daughters at John Carroll University, as they grace the program of this commencement.

1. Dream, hold the vision
Earth God's praises rings
In our end is our beginning
Seek God in all things.
Reason for our hoping
Make the pathway straight
Paraclete sent on us
Bring us to the gate.

Refrain Dream, hold the vision
Earth God's praises rings
In our end is our beginning
Seek God in all things.

2. Gift of the Spirit
Beauty every new and old
Promise of the Father
Fire blue and gold.
Light of all our walking
Fill our dark with day
Speak your word of presence
As we make our way.

(All repeat the refrain.)

3. Dream, hold the vision
Dream a dream that's true
Warm breast of the Spirit
See a world made new.
They shall be His people
He shall dwell with them
In the blessed city
Which no night can dim.

(Repeat the refrain.)

“Valiant-for-truth”

Ralph Vaughan Williams
Words: John Bunyan

After this it was noised abroad that Mr. Valiant-for-truth was taken with a summons . . . ; and had this for a token that the summons was true, ‘That his pitcher was broken at the fountain.’ When he understood it, he called for his friends, and told them of it. Then, said he, ‘I am going to my Father’s, and though with great difficulty I am got hither, yet now I do not repent me of all the trouble I have been to arrive where I am. My sword, I give to him that shall succeed me in my pilgrimage, and my courage and skill, to him that can get it. My marks and scars I carry with me, to be a witness for me, that I have fought his battles, who now will be my rewarder.’ When the day that he must go hence, was come, many accompanied him to the riverside, into which, as he went, he said, ‘Death, where is thy sting?’ And as he went down deeper, he said, ‘Grave where is thy victory?’

So he passed over, and all the trumpets sounded for him on the other side.

Hail to Carroll, gather near her
Let your joyful anthem ring
Sound your Mother’s praise, revere her.
Her fair name full proudly sing.

Pledge our love to Alma Mater,
To the Gold and Blue;
Pledge our love to Alma Mater,
To the Gold and Blue.

“God of Our Fathers”

Words: Daniel Roberts

Music: George Warren

Setting: Hal Hopson

God of our Fathers, whose almighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
Our grateful songs before Thy throne arise.

Thy love divine hath led us in the past,
In this free land by Thee our lot is cast;
Be Thou our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay,
Thy word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.

From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence,
Thy strong arm our ever sure defence;
Thy true religion in our hearts increase,
Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

Refresh Thy people on their toilsome way,
Lead us from night to never-ending day;
Fill all our lives with love and grace divine;
And glory, laud, and praise be ever Thine. Amen!
