THE HOLY TRINITY

by Andrei Rublev, early 15th century.
Tretyakov Gallery, Moscow

Andrei Rublev, honored as a saint in the Eastern Church, has in this masterpiece of Russian and world art portrayed the Trinity with utmost economy, his symbolism based on the visit of three angels to Abraham and Sarah at the oak of Mamre (Gen. 18:1). Their intent is redemptive: a sacrificial offering on the table, or rather altar, prefigures the Lamb of God slain for our salvation; the oak tree behind the Christ figure symbolizes his cross. The colors of their cloaks distinguish them as three, the Father to our left. The circular composition, their common transparent beauty, the blue of their garments, their accord, harmony, sympathy and peace manifest the unity of their eternal nature. Here is the Russian people's dream, then as well as now, of civil harmony and peace. The icon invites us to pray before it and to be drawn into the peace and unity of Trinitarian life. The recess in the front of the altar invites us perhaps to enter into the sacrifice as well. A copy of this icon adorns the entrance to Bruening Hall in our School of Business.

Icons feature prominently in the liturgy of the Eastern rites. The president of the University is bi-ritual, celebrating the liturgy in the rite of the Byzantine Catholic Church as well as in the Latin rite; hence, his special interest in icons.

God of all nations, whose almighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
Our grateful songs before Thy throne arise.

Thy love divine hath led us in the past,
In this free land by Thee our lot is cast;
Be Thou our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay,
Thy word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.

From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence,
Thy strong arm our ever sure defence;
Thy true religion in our hearts increase,
Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

Refresh Thy people on their toilsome way,
Lead us from night to never-ending day;
Fill all our lives with love and grace divine;
And glory, laud, and praise be ever Thine. Amen!

Recessional Hymn

Congregation and Choir

"Joyful, Joyful"

arr. from Ludwig van Beethoven
by Edward Hodges

Joyful, joyful, we adore you, God of glory, Lord of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before you, Opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, Fill us with the light of day!

All your works with joy surround you, Earth and heav'n reflect your rays,
Stars and angels sing around you, Center of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain, Flowery meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain, Praising you eternally!

Always giving and forgiving, Ever blessing, ever blest,
Well-spring of the joy of living, Ocean depth of happy rest!
Loving Father, Christ our brother, Let your light upon us shine;
Teach us how to love each other, Lift us to the joy divine.

Mortals join the mighty chorus, Which the morning stars began;
God's own love is reigning o'er us, Joining people hand in hand.
Ever singing, march we onward, Victors in the midst of strife;
Joyful music leads us sunward in the triumph song of life.
