Redmond Heads Delegation To Sociological Convention

Nine Students Represent Carroll at Annual Convention of Ohio Valley Students Sociology Society in Columbus

By Ken Fitzgerald

Led by James Redmond, a group of Carroll's Sociology students are attending the Ohio Valley Students Sociology Society Convention in Columbus, Ohio, today and tomorrow. At the same time the teachers of the Ohio Valley Sociology Society are holding their conclave.

James Redmond, a senior at Carroll and a sociology major, now heads this Society. He was elected to the position of president last year, after having served in the capacity of vice-president the preceding year. The other officers are Robert McIntyre of Akron University, vice-president; Miss Ann Hamilton of Akron University, secretary; and David Rabinovitz of Ohio University, treasurer.

Last year when Redmond was thus honored, this group only embodied the universities and colleges of Ohio. Through his untiring zeal and work the society now includes all the schools of higher learning in Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Kentucky, West Virginia, and Western Pennsylvania. The name, therefore, has been changed from Ohio Students to Ohio Valley Students Sociology Society.

High-lighting the Convention is the reading of five papers written by students of member schools. The schools honored are Ohio University, Findlay College, Wilberforce University, Akron University, and Carroll.

The paper from Carroll is Carl Giblin's senior thesis. It will be read by Walter Vitou. This is Carroll's second year in the spotlight. Last year Paul Waldner read his thesis on "The Child Labor Amendment in Ohio."

The title of Giblin's thesis is "Juvenile Delinquency in the Small City Contrasted With That of the Large."

In addition to Redmond and Vitou, Carroll is represented by Henry Martin, Anthony Marra, Don Myers, Robert Gallagher, Jack Ennen, Norbert Werner, and Bill Higgins.

Rev. Fr. Louis G. Weitzman, S.J., professor of Sociology, is representing Carroll in the teacher's division of the Society's Convention

Bishop Announces 1940 Essay Contest

The Most Rev. Joseph Schrembs, Archbishop-Bishop of Cleveland, has announced his annual essay contest for all Catholic college seniors of the Cleveland diocese, the deadline for Carroll entries being set at May 16 by the Dean.

The subject for this year's contest is, "The Principles of Christ, the Only Sure Foundation of World Peace." "Each college will select its three best papers and submit them to the Most Reverend Archbishop not later than May 20. The Archbishop will designate the successful contestant of each institution," declared Msgr. John R. Hagan, Superintendent of Catholic Schools, in a letter to the President, Rev. Edmund C. Horne, S.J.

According to Dean McCue, the medal for the John Carroll contest winner will be presented as a part of the graduation ceremonies. While the contest is open only to Seniors, he urges, "As many Seniors as possible should submit papers on this topic."

The winner of last year's contest was James Osborne, now a lecturer for Cleveland Council, Knights of Columbus and an editor of the council newspaper.

Classes Compete For Stunt Night Trophy Tonight

A full evening of entertainment will be provided tonight in the Auditorium when Carroll's Second Annual Stunt Night will be held. Amateur actors and comedians from all four classes will clash in an attempt to gain possession of the Stunt Night Trophy.

Dancing, to the music of Berner's Rarefactophone, will follow the performances. Fifteen cents has been set as the price of admission.

The chief efforts of the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen will be directed toward dethroning the seniors, winners in last year's event. Each class will be allowed a period of forty minutes in which to present its act. It is expected that these forty-minute periods will be utilized by presenting several short skits.

The class which is adjudged to have presented the best entertainment, at the conclusion of the acts, will be awarded the trophy.

Bill Duffin is general chairman of tonight's proceedings. He will be assisted by four class chairmen. These men, and their respective classes, are as follows: Jim Breslin, senior; Bob Ress, junior; Bob Donnelly, sophomore, and Mitch Shaker, freshman.

Six Upperclassmen Meet in Finals Of Oratorical Tournament May 7

Gain Right to Compete in Finals at Hotel Hollenden; Two Sessions Necessary in Preliminary Round of Frosh Tournament

In what is foreseen as a spirited contest, six upperclassmen will clash in the finals of the Oratorical Tournament on Tuesday, May 7. Five juniors and one sophomore won the right last week to participate in the finals.

The contestants are Robert Hengesbach, Thomas Kucko, John McLaughlin, Charles Maurer, Robert Ress, and Daniel Ryan. Paul Vincent was chosen alternate in case one of the six should be incapacitated. Maurer, Ress, Ryan, and Vincent are Alpha Sigma Nus.

Hengesbach, president of the Oratorical Society, promises a gala program. He has invited the members of the Ursuline College and Notre Dame College debating clubs to act as ushers for the contest. William "Tex" Cavanaugh, sophomore Glee Club baritone, has offered the services of the Cuyahoga Concert Trio of which he is a member. The other members of the trio are Miss Mary Kurta, soprano, and Frank Hillenbrand, pianist.

The finals will be held at Hotel Hollenden, beginning at 8 p. m. John Dowling, vice-president of the Oratorical Society will be chairman, owing to the fact that Bob Hengesbach, president of the Society, is a contestant.

Mr. J. Donald Roll, S.J., has announced that the judges will be three officials from the Cleveland Courts. They are Judges Perry A. Frey, Lillian M. Westropp, and Charles J. McNamee.

Nearly thirty freshmen in two sessions participated in the annual Freshman Oratorical Contest Tuesday and Wednesday under the leadership of Tom Moore, president, and Mr. J. D. Roll, S.J., moderator of the Freshman Oratorical Society.

Ted Saker, Mitchell Shaker, John O'Leary, Tom Dunnigan, Russ Faist, and James Laughlin were the successful candidates in the preliminaries. The subjects varied from "Graft" to a system for conducting class elections.

Finals will be held in a convocation before the freshman class if not the entire student body, according to Mr. Roll.

A dictum of the Carroll Union Executive Council, stated yesterday, makes election of officers for 1940-1941 imperative for all member organizations before May 10. Executive Council elections will be held on Thursday, May 16. The Spanish Club elects today; the French Club has already held its elections.

Glee Club Broadcasts From Statler Terrace Room

The John Carroll Glee Club took part in a special college night broadcast Wednesday night in the Terrace Room of Hotel Statler.

By special invitation of Eugene J. Kelly, manager of the hotel, the Glee Club co-operated with Frank Gagen and his orchestra in a 15-minute radio program over WGAR.

In addition to several short songs sung by the Glee Club, Frank Gagen presented his own arrangement of the Carroll alma mater song as a special tribute.

Renders "Sons of Carroll" on National Radio Hook-up

Junior Bob Politi's Petitions Crowned With Success as Famous Bandleader Telegraphs Consent to Have Glee Club Present Song

By Ted Saker

On Friday night, May 17, via nationwide network of NBC Red, into thousands of American homes, Fred Waring and his famous Glee Club will offer their own arrangement of "Sons of Carroll," the official song of John Carroll University.

Junior Guild Holds Dessert-Bridge

Tomorrow afternoon, Saturday, April 27, at 1:30 p. m., the Junior Guild of John Carroll is sponsoring a dessert bridge. It will be held in Halle's tea room.

The library fund of the Guild is to benefit from the proceeds. In the past this fund of the Guild has enabled the University library to purchase new and necessary books for the student's education. The Guild hopes to do a greater amount of this work in the future.

Miss Julia Leary will be hostess. She will be aided by a committee of 30.

Juniors Sponsor Informal Dance

The Junior Sport Dance, sponsored by the junior class, will be held Wednesday, May 1, in the Carroll Auditorium. Patterned after several other affairs held on the campus this year, the dance will be informal. It is not a closed dance; it is open to everyone. Popular recorded music will be furnished by Berner's Rarefactophone, by this time a well known and highly regarded dispenser of dance rhythm.

Jack Schmitt, editor of The Carroll News, heads the committee of five in charge of the event. Miss Jean Nash will be hostess for the evening. Assisting on the committee are Ed Hannan, Bill Joyce, Ed Pogonowski and Joe Vacha. Jerry Nolan, president of the junior class, made the appointments.

The price of admission will be fifty cents a couple. There is no advance sale of tickets. Following a policy which has contributed to the success of informal dances held in the past, the committee has announced that the "no stags" rule will be in effect.

The reason for the mid-week date is the fact that the following day is Ascension Thursday, which is, of course, a holiday.

Credit for this arrangement goes to Bob Politi, a junior, who placed petitions on all the bulletin boards for student signatures. Immediately, the papers which were addressed to Mr. Waring were covered with names written at all angles. These papers were then collected and sent to the bandleader.

A very encouraging letter was sent to Politi, who, in turn, requested students and alumni to mail postcards to the exponents of "Pleasure Time", requesting the song.

Then, on Tuesday night, a telegram came to Politi which read as follows:

Mr. Politi:
"Chesterfields Satisfy." Will present your song May 17.
Sincerely,
FRED WARING

Thus, after two weeks of hard work, success was realized.

Rev. Joseph A. Kiefer, S.J., is the composer of the song. He is also an avid Waring fan.

Waring, his orchestra, vocalists, and Glee Club are one of the most popular combinations on the airwaves today. He has received incessant praise from the critics, and it was due to the success he brought on his 15-minute, five-a-week program that brought Glenn Miller on the air with the same type program for the tobacco concern.

The ever present variety on the program, which starts at 7 p.m., is one of the reasons for this popularity. Such features as "Push-Button Tuning," the musical baseball and football scores increased his vast radio audience.

Education Society Reorganized Upon Request of Students

Reorganization of the Education Society of John Carroll University was begun this week. Dr. Hugh Graham, Director of the Department of Education, was approached by a number of interested students desiring to renew the activities of the Society. Dr. Graham graciously agreed to aid them, and, furthermore, to officiate as moderator of the Society.

At the first meeting, held Monday, April 22, seventeen students convened and elected Charles Maurer, chairman, and Francis Dillon, secretary, to act as temporary officers during the period of reorganization. Chairman Maurer appointed two committees to assist in the task; one to decide and determine time of meetings and a program for the next meeting; the other to draft a satisfactory constitution. The former consists of Paul Vincent, Joseph McCarthy, and Al Markus; the latter, of Joseph Saly Frank Talty, and William Balasz.

The Society will limit its membership to men who are interested in the problems of modern education and professional aspects of teaching. The main objectives of the Society are the promotion of educational research, maintenance of high standards and the cultivation of Christian ideals.

... walk, don't run, to the nearest huddle ...

Don't become alarmed at the ominous-appearing huddles which have become a daily sight in the cafeteria and halls. There's no revolution brewing—at least none of any serious consequence. 'Tis spring, finally, and with the advent of spring, Carroll's politicians come out of hibernation and go to work.

The Carroll Union, the classes, and the many student organizations will soon elect officers for next year, and it is the coming elections which are currently occupying the attention of those with political ambitions.

Whether politics constitutes a good or bad feature at Carroll, the fact remains that we have more politicians per square yard on our campus than Tammany ever had.

... for a good time don't miss stunt night ...

If you are looking for a lot of fun, we caution you not to miss Stunt Night. This event, in case you are unaware of the fact, though that would hardly seem possible in view of the publicity the affair has been given, takes place tonight in the Auditorium.

Anything can happen, and probably will when the four classes put on their acts. Last year's Stunt Night was good; this year's should be better.

... education society welcomed back ...

The reorganization of the Education Society which was begun this week is a welcome move. At one time an active organization at Carroll, the Society lapsed into a dormant state within the last few years, and disbanded. Now it has been revived, and we believe it is better able to accomplish its objectives at the present time than it ever was in the past.

We base this belief on the report that the reorganization of the Society was initiated at the request of the students themselves. Thus, the organization is assured of a nucleus of members who have more than a mere passive interest in its activities.

Success Story

I walked into Joe's room without knocking. Joe was seated at his desk by the window, reading a red-covered book and smoking a long-stemmed pipe.

"Hi, Joe," I said. "Reading?"

"Um-hum," said Joe, putting down his pipe. "Sit down."

"Thanks," I said. "Watcha got there, a blood-and-thunder Western or something on the tender side?"

"Neither," said Joe. "This is Whipple's 'Traces of Modern Children's Diseases in Neanderthal Man.'"

"Oh," I said. "Well, look, Joe. Have you got time for that? I mean, with lab work crowding up—"

"I finished my last experiment yesterday afternoon. I'm through for the year." A light breeze came through the window and ruffled Joe's hair.

"That's fine, Joe," I said. "But what about your class work?"

"Oh, I've been doing a little studying in advance," said Joe, knocking a bowlful of ashes out the window. "I'm about three days ahead of the class."

"Well, wadaya know!" I said. "I suppose you're working on a couple of term papers—"

"Oh, those," laughed Joe. "I finished them last month."

Through the open window I could see a gang of fellows playing ball.

"Joe," I said, "don't you find it hard to sit in here and study with those guys having so much fun right outside your window?"

"No," said Joe. "I get plenty of baseball in the summer, playing with a Class A team."

"Uh—Joe," I said. "You haven't, by any chance, got your thesis—"

"Finished?" Joe's handsome head made a striking silhouette in the window. "Oh, long ago. Handed it in—"

Well, Father, what would you have done? Well, that's what I did. And I'm just sorry it wasn't the third floor.

To a New Typewriter

You sit there, smug, self-satisfied,
A truly noble creature,
A grand printing press, supplied
With every modern feature.

Your shift, your keys that can't be heard,
Your hardy constitution,
Make you the final brilliant word
In typing evolution.

I sit here and admire you,
But sit for other reasons, too;
I've got a lot of work to do;
I'm in my busy-season stew.

But do you help? About as much
As did your father's father.
With automatic choice of touch
You're still less help than bother.

The first machine could write, that's all,
And you can do no better.
With all the gadgets at your call
You can't compose a letter.

Space Limited

The Carroll Union meeting was recently devoted to the airing of petty grievances held by John Dowling and Bernie Petty. In formal debate they argued their differences with both men being right in their own opinions. The debate was pointless and merely served to increase ill feelings. It was a sorry spectacle for the unprecedented number of spectators who, when one debater asked the other for an apology, felt that they were owed the apology for having had their time wasted.

The Union in the minds of many lost prestige when the meeting showed its inefficiency and lack of conformity to rules of order. The order for that day was plenty of bickering and very little accomplishment.

The Union owes it to the students, who by popular election have seated the members, to become more efficient, effective, and indifferent as regards personalities.

Joe Kasunic is apparently looking for another small photo to replace the one he carries of V.M.P. in his key-chain picture case. While others are indulging in class and club politics, Popsy Kilbane is boring from within in the big-time. He recently dined, along with his ward leader, with ex-governor Davey. Pat McNulty, Joe Curry, Ed Garry, the Gallagher twins, et al. look like sure-fire winners in the soft ball league. Does anyone know who drives the Ford into the dorm drive to pick up Bill Joyce? The only clue lies in the Ursuline stickers which adorn the windshield. Senior Week sounds like a great idea. Anyone who works four years deserves the recognition which such a plan will bestow. There is, however, one bad feature. If the Farewell Dance is limited to senior attendance, there might be orchestra difficulties—not enough revenue for a good orchestra.

Al Sutton is the victim of popular censure since a rumor of his dating Bobbie Giebel has arisen. Joe O'Donnell is contemplating easing the glutted orchid market tonight, enhancing the already lovely Jeanne Timbers with one for the Lourdes Prom.

Dorm Drivel—Ed Sheridan and Bill Ryan of Chicago spent a restful week-end in a town of the same name. That isn't the ghost of Wiley Post, it's Guy Hettler with a bandaged eye. The boys go in for Esquire cartoons. Almost every room has at least one. Bill Jacoby's room, however, is decorated with sketches from the football programs. He has some nice drawings of Sam Marcus, Andy Palguta, and Tony Yonto.

Today Paul Lombardy celebrates his twenty-second birthday. Nothing elaborate, you know, just a plain gift to express the sentiment. Chief Matowitz doesn't like the idea of warm cokes. They spoil his whole day. Shaker Heights will be the host to Ed Zurlinden Monday night, since he accepted an invitation to attend court there for not making a boulevard stop. Jerry Nolan and Kay Dubbs put the official stamp of approval on Mentor last week when they drove out there.

The Frosh, not wishing to be different, this year break away from precedent by holding their dance on a Wednesday. The day is May 15 at Pine Ridge. The Glee Club and French Club are also planning activities in the near future.

Well, soon the quizzes will be here and our "hair will be gray, but not with years."

... One of the main reasons for going to the concert will be found in two men who were so successful last year. Dick Breiner and Matt Cantillon will again bring down the house this year with a program like this: Star Dust, Stompin' At The Savoy, In a Sentimental Mood and La Carmencita ...

Gene Krupa takes topflight this week with a red hot platter featuring a sizzling and beautifully arranged Tuxedo Junction with a spine-tingling trumpet solo and a twanging guitar. Irene Daye's vocal steals the other side with So Long ... Andrews Sisters' latest release of Tuxedo Junction should be turned over for the best song, Rhumboogie. Benny Goodman's The Sky Fell Down, with Helen Forrest, chalks another hit on his sizzling clarinet ... Bob Crosby plugs a fast-clicking song, From Another World, with a Marian Mann vocal ... Vocalion offers four "must cuts" on two releases by Dick Jurgens and Frankie Masters. The former gives I Concentrate on You a special touch coupled with Between You and Me. Masters joins the now famous Woodpecker Song in a clever fashion with "Glen Gray take notice" warning for his A Lover's Lullaby. A piano solos half

Science Notes

By Frank Honn

One of the most important problems in biology is the careful preparation of microscope slides. Each section of tissue to be examined must be so thin that only one layer of cells is visible. To insure accurate results, an exacting procedure is used to treat the organ in question. Some of the necessary steps are fixation (killing), dehydration, cedar oil treatment, and impregnation with paraffin wax. In each case the solution must be allowed to penetrate the structure gently lest the cell walls be ruptured. Once treated with melted paraffin, the tissue is allowed to harden in a block of wax. In this form it is rigid enough to be cut on the delicate microtome, which is capable of cutting to a thinness of several microns or thousands of a millimeter.

Until recently the impregnation steps have been a source of much trouble to the biologist. Tissues were merely placed in the reagents and impregnation allowed to proceed naturally. Penetration of the melted paraffin often took as long as twelve hours.

However, following a procedure originated at Duquesne University by Horace and Chermock, students in biological technique, under the direction of Fr. Ahearn, have reduced the running time from 12 to 1 1/2 hours. The new method makes use of a partial vacuum to speed impregnation. So rapid is the process that bubbles of chloroform residue can be seen emerging from the tissue in the paraffin bath.

In addition to adopting the new technique, Carroll biologists have improved it considerably. For the specified aspirator pump, they have substituted a motor-driven rotary vacuum pump. To insure against too high a vacuum, they have connected not one but eight paraffin jars to the line. This feature enables the student to place each of the infiltration steps under vacuum at the same time. Accurate control of pressure is had by inserting a manometer in the system. Pressures from 1 to 19 mm are being employed.

Poet's Corner

WAR

Broken bones, flood and fire,
Bits of stones, mud and mire,
Bodies lying everywhere,
Foulsome odors in the air,
Roar of cannon, gun, and shell
Silenced in the old church bell.
Death is tearing through the trees
Grim and cold, like autumn's breeze.

Half-crazed men roam about,
Hearts that once were brave and stout,
Machine guns rattle in the night,
Strong men curse them, what a sight.
Ghastly figures lie around.
Their lips no more can echo sound,
Their eyes are gazing skyward now,
Their bodies bent in mocking bow.

Barbed wire, helmets, army mules,
Planes and subs—dictators' tools,
Bombs are always bursting near,
Where men turn pale from awe, not fear.
Planes come hurtling from the sky
To crash on earth, thereon they lie
A tangled wreck of blood and gore
Scenes like this make up a war.

The tramp, tramp, tramp of marching feet
The Whiz-Boom-Bang as the armies meet,
And yet, all this, what is it for,
This terrible havoc called a war?
Oh God on high—to you we pray
As kneeling down—that on this day,
Please Lord, stop this misery,
End this war and make us free.

Glee Club Goes Into High Gear In Rehearsal for May 12 Concert

The Glee Club is now in full swing as it is increasing its practice sessions and the final arrangements are being completed for its Golden Jubilee concert on May 12 at Severance Hall. The activity of the members, the efforts of the directors, and the choice selections to be given assure the Glee Club one of its most successful performances in years.

Since Father Kiefer took over in 1931, it is also an anniversary for him, for it is his tenth year as moderator. He and Dr. Louis A. Balogh, director, form a combination that is ideal for the direction and success of the concert. They have selected descriptive songs that convey vivid impressions of nature and life.

The soloists of the evening will be Frank Caine, tenor; Bill Cavanaugh, baritone; and Joe Klausner, baritone. A variety of popular selections will be presented by the orchestra and a double quartet. Dick Breiner and Matt Cantillon, duo-piano artist, who made such a hit last year, will again give their interpretation of some popular tunes.

One of the high spots of the program will be the Palestrina classic "O Bona Jesu", rendered by an augmented chorus, in which several alumni will participate.

Above is pictured Fred Waring and his Glee Club, who will play "Sons Of Carroll" on Friday, May 17. After receiving a large number of requests, Fred Waring wired that he would work out a special arrangement of the song for his Glee Club.

Petty vs. Dowling in Debate Highlights Executive Meeting

Senior and Sophomore Clash at Year's Best-Attended Meeting; Argument Grew Out of Oratorical Prelims

Mr. Petit, Hesperen Participate in Radio Discussion Series

On Saturday, April 20, the John Carroll Radio Club presented another in the popular series of student-instructor discussions. The participants in last week's discussion were Mr. Herbert H. Petit, instructor in English, and sophomore Daniel Hesperen. The topic of the discussion was the value of studying foreign languages in college.

The choral club of Ursuline College will be featured on tomorrow's broadcast over Station WTAM. Also appearing on the program will be the Reverend Daniel B. Cronin, S.J., assistant dean, who will present a short talk on one of the varied phases of education.

Due to the fact that Bernard Petty, regular master of ceremonies will be at Marquette University, as Carroll's representative at the Alpha Sigma Nu convention, Irvin Blose, sophomore, will act as master of ceremonies.

The following Saturday, May 4, the Radio Club will present an original drama, written by Robert Politi. The story deals with an imaginary incident in the front line trenches during the last war. The play is entitled "We Were Four."

Temporarily cast in the leading roles are: Nick Barille, Jerry Mulvihill, Frank Grecius, Dan Ryan, and Bob Politi.

University Again Holds Open House Program

The University "Open House" this year will be held Thursday, May 9 and Sunday, May 12. The first date will be for the Catholic high school seniors, while the Sunday date is open to the general public.

Charging Bernard J. Petty, president of the Carroll Union, with slipshod handling of union business, John L. Dowling, managing editor of The Carroll News, engaged in a debate with Petty at the April 18 meeting of the student governing body.

Dowling, who is not a member of the executive council, was allowed to present his charges of inefficiency in two periods of ten and five minutes, respectively. Petty defended himself in periods equal in length to those of his adversary.

The hearing was an outgrowth of Dowling's speech in the Oratorical Contest held two days previous to the meeting. Members of the council wished to hear both sides of the case and take whatever action was deemed necessary. Petty was charged with failure to observe parliamentary procedure in presiding at meetings of the body, and with neglect in connection with the cancellation of the Spring Festival.

He answered his accuser by stating that he was not infallible when matters of parliamentary procedure were involved and that the Spring Festival was cancelled because of a conflict of dates.

Following the debate, the council members gave Petty a vote of confidence, and decided to take no disciplinary action toward Dowling.

At the request of the council, Dowling apologized for bringing up the charges in the Oratorical Contest instead of at a Union meeting.—J.F.S.

Dr. Dethier Invents "Olfactometer" for Tests

Dr. Dethier, instructor of Biology, has invented an Olfactometer which detects the sense smell of insects and human beings. The machine has already given tests to over 40% of his biology students.

Debating Season Draws to Close

Daniel Ryan and Robert Ress, juniors, yesterday returned from a debating sojourn in Pittsburgh and surrounding territory. The two upheld the affirmative side of the Pi Kappa Delta isolation question.

In the finale of the 1939-1940 debating season, William Lennon and Daniel Ryan will meet a visiting team from St. Bonaventure College of New York. The Carroll-St. Bonaventure debate will be held Friday afternoon at St. Ignatius High School on the West Side.

Bob Hengesbach, president of the Oratorical Society, this week announced the appointment of Patrick McNulty, a junior, as a committee of one to negotiate for the award of debate keys to deserving senior members of the Oratorical Society.

Camera Club Sets May 6 for Show

Robert J. Crouse, president of the Carroll Photographic Society, announced this week, that May 6 was tentatively set for the opening of the society's "Spring Showing" of prints. It is expected that details will be arranged at the meeting today.

Because of inability to obtain direct financial aid from the University, the society decided at the last regular meeting to collect dues from its members. The members of the club, anxious to use the darkroom donated by the school, really consented to the payment of five cents per week. This money will be used to equip the darkroom, and meet other running expenses.

Attendance Rises At Science Seminars

A satisfying increase of attendance at the Science Seminars, is reported by Harry Svec, president of the Scientific Academy. Since the beginning of the seminars under Drs. Ludeke and Thomas the audience has more than doubled. Svec credits the increase to the interesting talks given by the faculty of the various science departments. The last four speakers and their topics were: Dr. DeThier, on the "Factors Influencing the Choice of Food of Caterpillars," Fr. Joliat, on the "Vertical Seismograph," Mr. Burke, on the "Abnormal Growth of Living Cells," and Dr. Gilchrist, on "Cellular Death."

At the two last regular meetings of the Scientific Academy, speeches were given by Fred Payne and Carl Brudzynski on "Galen the Biologist" and "Hydroponics," respectively. Next Tuesday, Harry Svec will give a dissertation on "Vitamin B1," which concerns a branch of his original research work for the Chemistry Department.

L.T.S. Cast Journeys To Painesville for Play

For the first time in the history of the Carroll Little Theatre Society, the annual play is going on the road. The cast will present "Father Malachy's Miracle" in Painesville on Sunday, May 5. The show is being sponsored by the Catholic Youth Organization and St. Mary's Parish of Painesville, and will be presented at Champion Junior High.

Cavanaugh Forms Concert Trio

The Cuyahoga Concert Trio, a recently formed group, which includes William Cavanaugh, a sophomore baritone, will offer a diversified program at the finals of the Oratorical Contest May 7.

The trio performed on April 8 before the Fathers' and Mothers' Clubs of Notre Dame Academy. They are scheduled for a repeat performance at the same school, April 29.

Minutes of April 25 J.C. Union Meeting

Minutes for Carroll Union meeting of April 25 (yesterday): McCrystal, as acting chairman in the absence of the president, called meeting to order . . . Prayer offered . . . No minutes were read because of secretary's absence . . . Joyce was appointed temporary secretary.

Present: Kasunic, McGorray, Manning, Duffy, Jacoby, Sheridan, James, Caine, Lemppes, Joyce, Noetzel, McCrystal.

Absent: Sheeche, Costello, Brysh, Murray, Svec, Otto, Hengesbach, Duffin, Nolan.

Excused absences: Petty, Vincent. Noetzel was asked about handbook negotiations. He reported the Dean is dispensing with the aid of the Union in this matter at present. Dean said nothing about finances. Noetzel said.

McCrystal asked Duffy about freshman dance. Duffy reported date moved up from May 17 to May 15. He also asked for a loan of $50 to cover initial expenses of the dance. Motion made, seconded, passed.

Jacoby requested that the Carroll Union extend a loan of $5 to the sophomores for Stunt Night purposes (owing to a deficit in the class treasury). After discussion and a reading of the pertinent constitutional section, Jacoby's motion (Sheridan's second) that the Union lend the sophs five dollars was carried.

Father Murphy requested senior participation in the Open House program. He asked for a list of seniors willing to participate. McCrystal indicated that the matter would be treated at a senior class meeting today (April 26).

Dowling suggested listing of attendance records at Executive Council meetings. He proposed the columns of The Carroll News as a medium. Jacoby's motion to approve the suggestion was seconded and passed.

A motion by Lemppes that all member organizations of the Carroll Union hold elections on or before May 10 was seconded and passed. Official notice to each organization will appear within the next few days. May 16 was set as the day for elections in the Executive Council. Lemppes reported Spanish Club election today (April 26). Meeting adjourned.

Inter-Collegiate Club Election Places Mary McMurray in Vice Presidency

At the first combined meeting of the Inter-Collegiate Club of John Carroll and Notre Dame College, Miss Mary McMurray of Lakewood, and a sophomore at Notre Dame, was elected vice-president. Robert Politi of Carroll was elected president, Marcella Eppley, sophomore class proxy at Notre Dame was elected secretary and Jerry Mulvihill, of Carroll, treasurer.

The first meeting was held at Carroll on Sunday, April 14, and was followed by a social period of dancing. Dean McCue spoke briefly to the club and urged all present to do all in their power to make it a successful venture. He said that both he and the Dean of Notre Dame have long realized the need for such a club, but that they felt the students themselves should take the initiative in such an affair.

At present there are several committees working on a program for the second combined meeting which will be held again at Carroll on Sunday, April 28. There are now about sixty members from the two colleges. Ursuline College is not a member as yet.

The Sport-Lite

By Bob Vitek

Now that spring football is holding the spotlight on the sports calendar, prospects for the 1940 season and opponents to be met seem to be the general topics of discussion. In regard to the latter, completion of the 1940 grid card is the problem confronting Coach Tom Conley. At present the filling of an open date and the ironing out of difficulties pertaining to the location of the opening game of the season are the chief causes of concern.

Inability to complete negotiations for a game with the Detroit University Titans on October 12 has left an open date on the grid card and introduced the possibility of seeing the Streaks play only an eight game schedule next fall. Conley, however, is still trying to arrange a game with another college in an attempt to fill this date. The Carroll eleven is now tentatively scheduled to open the season September 28 against Morris Harvey College, but exact site of the encounter is not yet definite. Conley wants to play it in Cleveland, but Morris Harvey fails to see it that way. This brings up another perplexity.

Otherwise, the rest of the sked appears to be pretty well set. Highlights of the season will be tilts with newcomers to the grid program in Xavier of Cincinnati on October 27 there, Davis-Elkins, who will be met here, and of course Morris Harvey. A night game with Case on October 18 at Shaw Field will mark the first time the Rough Riders have played under the lights in Big Four competition.

Although hockey has been safely tucked away in moth balls until next year, a few closing words on the subject might not go amiss here. Current discussions point to the possible abandonment of the Ohio-Penn League because of Carroll's complete domination of the circuit for the past three years. However, Al Sutphin's declaration at the recent hockey banquet that college hockey will not be waived under any circumstances and the fact that many other teams in the loop will be greatly strengthened by present freshmen and former amateur stars coming up should serve to allay these fears.

In any event, Coach Herb Bee intends to do all in his power to continue hockey at Carroll—league or no league. It would indeed be discomfiting to see a sport which has commanded such success at Carroll excluded from the athletic program. To this Bee heartily agrees. According to him, Carroll would go out on its own and schedule games with such outside teams as Michigan, Colgate, Minnesota, and Illinois if the Ohio-Penn League disbanded. It's almost certain that this procedure would not be frowned upon.

And—the big question—why is it that the Cleveland Barons, who have announced a new policy of skimming the cream of the college and amateur crop of players in the attempt to introduce younger players into their lineup, and who have inaugurated the building of an extensive farm system to accomplish this end, failed to make overtures to our two great stars, Ed Arsenault and Fred Rancourt? A person well up in official hockey circles here in Cleveland, whose name cannot be mentioned for obvious reasons, summed it up best by advancing the old saying that "people don't appreciate what goes on right in their own back yard."

Intramural Softball Teams Begin Action

With cries of "You're out" and "Kill the ump," the annual intramural baseball wars made an auspicious beginning Monday on the Carroll diamonds.

The eighteen teams entered for the season will be broken up into three six team leagues. Composing the Red League will be the Irish, McNulty's Midgets, the Rockets, the Brutes, the Senior Yankees, and the Chumpians; while in the Blue League are the Scientists the Groundhogs, the Scarlet Bombers, the Dead Enders, the Wild Irish, and the Blitzkriegers. The Freshman White League consists of the Screwballs, Zazula Zazas, Centrifuges, Emanons, Golden Tornadoes, and the Caseys.

Winners to Receive Awards

Each team will play the other five members of their circuit and the top clubs of each league will meet in a three-way playoff at the end of the season. Ten members of the winning aggregation will receive gold buttons as an award.

Yankees, Zazulas Impressive

Most impressive of the victories recorded so far were those of the Senior Yankees and the Zazula Zazas. Jack Murray of the Yankees pulled a Bob Feller by pitching a no-hit game against the Chumpians, who lived up to their name by succumbing 21-0, and the Zazula's Tom Mazanec turned in a one-hit performance to defeat the Screwballs, 20-0. It looked like Blitz-

Ennen Named Grid Manager

During the past week, the Carroll Athletic Board has confirmed the appointment of Jack Ennen as Head Football Manager for the coming year.

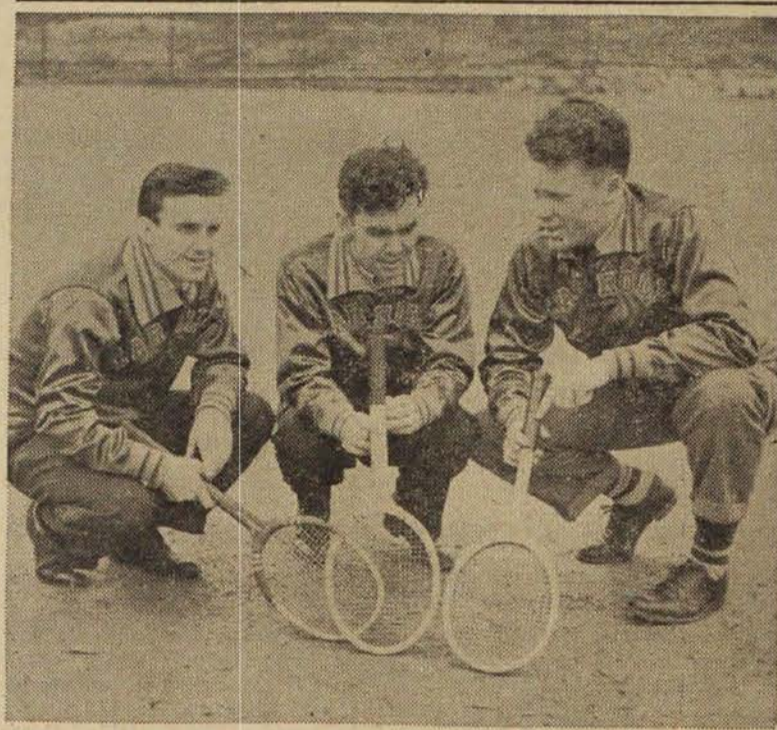

Ennen, a junior enrolled in the A. B. curriculum at Carroll, will take over the duties previously held by George Otto, who graduates this June. Ennen is a veteran of the managerial staff, having already served as assistant manager of football and basketball for the past three seasons. In his sophomore year he was manager of the hockey squad.

In previous years of service to the various athletic teams, he has won acclaim for his efficiency and dependability and duly deserves the distinction accorded him in his recent appointment by the Athletic Board. Ennen hails from Ypsilanti, Michigan.

He will be assisted by an able staff of Junior managers consisting of Bob McDermott, of Youngstown, and Don Flynn and Dan Hesperen of Cleveland.

All three have also had previous experience with the managerial staff. McDermott undertook the duties of head manager of the basketball squad last season and did a very noteworthy job. Hesperen served in a similar capacity with the hockey squad during the past year, and Flynn has been assistant manager of the football team during the last two years.

Carroll's Tennis Aces

Four lettermen and a group of promising sophomores will comprise the 1940 Carroll tennis team during one of the busiest seasons ever carded by the Blue Streaks.

Med Nolan Heads Veterans

Captain Med Nolan, with two years of brilliant performances to his credit, heads the list of returning monogram winners. Art Heffernan, husky six-foot senior known for his smashing forehand shots, will also be back for another year of competition. The other two lettermen, Jerry Nolan and Bob Kleinhenz, both juniors who were outstanding on the court last season, complete the first team. Some of the soph aspirants who will be counted on for replacement duty are Herb Gammons, Bill Dowling, and Jack Miller. All three have looked impressive in practice.

Ludeke Coaches Netters

The netters will be coached by Dr. Carl Ludeke, professor of mathematics at Carroll. Ludeke was quite a star during his student days at Cincinnati University and should guide the Streaks to a successful year. He took over the coaching reins in mid-season last year and did a very credible job. According to Ludeke, prospects for a good showing on the courts look bright with only Jim Smith missing from last year's varsity.

Defeat B-W in Opener

In the opening encounter of the season with Baldwin-Wallace College yesterday afternoon, the Carroll racquet wielders routed the Yellow-Jackets by a score of 7-2. Captain Med Nolan and brother Jerry Nolan, and sophomores Miller, Bob Bambrick, and Bill Dowling were outstanding in the triumph.

In the singles Carroll took four out of six matches. Med Nolan defeated Suber of B-W, 6-2, 7-5. Dowling defeated Winters, B-W, 4-6, 6-1 6-1. Miller vanquished Woodcock, B-W, 8-6, 6-1; Bambrick beat Brown, B-W, 6-3, 6-4; Fleming, B-W, conquered Jerry Nolan, 6-2, 6-4; and Palmer of B-W defeated Kleinhenz, 6-2, 6-1.

Sweep Doubles

The Streaks again displayed their supremacy in the doubles when they made a clean sweep of the matches. Jerry Nolan and Miller teamed up to rout Fleming and Fuhr of B-W to the tune of 6-2, 6-1. Then Med Nolan and Dowling defeated Pelanter and Woodcock of B-W 6-3, 6-3, and Bambrick and Kleinhenz got together to triumph over B-W's team of Winters and Jackson by a score of 6-3, 6-1.

Tomorrow morning the Carroll netters will seek their second victory in as

Frosh Shine In Practice

Yearlings Dominate Initial Scrimmage of Spring Drills

The sparkling play of several freshmen grid hopefuls plus the return of favorable weather conditions highlighted spring football drills as the squad neared the completion of its third week of practice.

Holdovers Also Star

In the first scrimmage of the spring session held last Tuesday, outstanding performances by frosh aspirants Rube Davis, Nick Barille, Al Piccuta, Ray Gorski, completely dominated the play. All are slated to bolster the varsity which has several gaps to be filled before the Streaks begin the quest for their second Big Four football championship. Also impressive was the work of holdovers Sam Marcus and Johnny Kraft in the line, and Steve Polachek, Tony Yonto, and Al Markus in the backfield. Scrimmages will be held more often now that inclement weather has ceased.

Signal Calling Returns

A new feature which has made its way into spring drills is the return of signal calling as barked by the quarterback. Although this system was not much in evidence in this week's scrimmaging, Coach Tom Conley intends to devote much time to it because a new rule limits to 25 seconds the time the ball must be snapped after the referee's whistle has been blown. Previously 30 seconds were allowed. Besides taking less time than the customary huddle, this colorful feature of football offers another advantage in that it allows the quarterback to view the defensive set-up directly in front and thus call plays capitalizing on the opponent's weaknesses. Its length of presence in Carroll football maneuvers will depend entirely on its ability to hold up under fire.

Ping Pong Tourney In Second Round

With spinning services and slashing returns, all the first and many of the second round matches have been completed in John Carroll's annual ping pong tournament. Many favorites have already been upset while some "unknowns" have turned in uncanny performances.

Whelan Defeated

Probably the most sparkling match played thus far saw last year's champion go down in defeat. Bob Whelan was unable to break through the steady game of Len Pchola and lost to his final opponent of the 1939 tournament. Besides Pchola, Russ Faist, known for his blazing returns, and Bob Lawler show promise of being the final contenders for the coveted award.

Bob Whelan, director of the tournament, announces that ten have already passed the second round matches. Bob Miller overcame the fancy game of Bob Brewster to attain quite a lead in the contest. Len Woda, soph entrant, beat Al Sutton, and J. Curry downed J. Stotler. Tip Conry lost to the slices and curves of J. Grauel, while J. Baker tripped Reichelt, 21-8; 21-16.

But Grauel has since been eliminated. Having already downed E. Staple, R.

The Sport Parade

By Andy Mulwick

Now that that certain person who gets one in a dither has completed the official tabulation of the 1940 census may we introduce a public opinion poll which was taken recently at Carroll, and which should go over with a bang or a gallop.

Cash and Carry:

Most of the spectators here at school feel that we should get the cash (the gate receipts, etc.) and let the groundkeepers carry out our opponents' players.

Strict Isolation:

Some favor a policy of strict isolation; that is, that we isolate ourselves to such teams as Arkansas A. and M. and other non-belligerents.

Third Term Issue:

Concerning the third term, most Carroll men are against it, but do highly favor the football team's running for re-election for the Big Four Championship. Reserve they hope will be as reserve next fall as they were last, but believe in Case those Rough Riders storm Cedar Hill, the bookies better beware.

Now that the smoke of battle has cleared away because the enemy ran out of bullets, rumor has it that "the boys" Hoynes and Vandemotter are going to be forced to hold a raffle or float a bond issue or tax levy if they wish to avoid the auctioneer's gavel. If help financial or otherwise, does not arrive soon perhaps maybe Hoynes will be found floatin' somewhere.

Baseball:

This week witnessed the opening of another very promising and exciting intramural baseball season. The Scientists, under the leadership of that ex-bowling promoter, Bob Andrassy, were taken into camp by the Ground Hoes to the tune of 14 to 7. Al Sutton's pitching was air tight and so was Sulzer's defensive play at third base. Med Nolan has the makings of another Gehrig, but he is right handed. Ray "Mack" Thomas of the Scientists turned in a swell job of prancing about third base, but it was evident that his arm was geared a little too high for first baseman Bill "Terry" Duffin. Andrassy and Bill Scharf might take a few lessons in catching flies. Bushel baskets and fly paper will be considered ineligible because of a lack of quality points.

The Screwballs thought that they were going good last Monday when they lost to the Zases 20 to 0. Tuesday, however, the Chumpians broke that record and lost to the Senior Yankees 21 to 0. Incidentally this game was a no-hitter for ex-catcher Jack Murray. Armand Caminati was the only Chumpian player able to solve the great Murray's twirling for a free trip to first base. For the losers Clem Rannigan and Fred Gatch turned in fine performance in the pitching box, but they got too much practice in that game. Rannigan pitched only three innings, but as far as he was concerned it seemed like nine.

krieg in Copenhagen when the Yankees and Zazulas started their march around the bases.

In two other games the Groundhogs undermined the luckless Scientists, 14-7, and the Emanons defeated the Chemistry-minded Centrifuges 3-0 in a hard fought battle.

Hockey Team Is Feted at Banquet On April 19th

Champions of the Ohio-Penn League for the third consecutive year, the John Carroll hockey team was feted at a well-deserved banquet Friday, April 19, at the school auditorium.

Toastmaster at the affair, which was under the auspices of the Carroll Dads' Club, was Bob Godley of the Cleveland Press. Speaking to an audience of over four hundred people, Mr. Godley introduced the following: Peter Hopkins, chairman of entertainment, Fr. Edmund C. Horne, S.J., Fr. Edward C. McCue, S.J., Fr. Daniel B. Cronin, S.J., Al Sutphin, Fr. Albert Sammon, S.J., Thomas Conley, and Herb Bee.

Mr. Alexander Armstrong, president of the Dads' Club, presented keys to Father Horne, who then gave them to the team. Members of the team who received letters are: George Otto, Matt Schneider, John Manofsky, Bill Higgins, Ted Lempges, Don Meyers, Clem Rannigan, Manager Bob Mulcahy, and Bob Smith.

Entertainment was furnished by the Turnverein quartet, Mr. Guiseppe Gentile, and Dick O'Heren, WHK tenor.

Freshman Class Sign Stan Wood's Band For Spring Dance

The freshman class has announced that Stan Wood's Orchestra will play at their annual spring dance at the very ideal Pine Ridge Country Club.

The date of the dance is Wednesday, May 15. Bruce Thompson, chairman, said that because of the fine band and the beautiful country club which have been obtained, the dance promises to be one of the highlights of the school year. The yearling's dance is always a great success, and the beautiful grounds of the club should be an attraction for many of the boys.

Thompson and his committee of Ray Duffy, honorary chairman, Bud McGraw, Lennie Reichelt, Dick Kilbane, Tom Dunnigan, Bill Conlon, Bernie Brysh, and Mike Costello have been completing the arrangements. It is expected that the entire student body will support them.

The usual customs of the freshman dance will be followed and the affair will be semi-formal. The bids are priced at $1.50.

Clothes Drive Heads Sodality Activities

In the Sodality headlines of the week are: the clothes drive and the impending election of officers.

The student body was responsive beyond expectation to the appeal for discarded clothes, and Father McQuade, the Moderator, was pleased by the generosity displayed. The garments will be distributed among the aged of the city and the charges of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. The Sodality extends a note of appreciation to each individual who contributed in this act of charity.

With the presence of spring, as is customary, the sodality will be electing new officers for the ensuing year. There is nothing unusual about this. But this is unusual: namely, that a new system of elections will be introduced to Carroll.

Only those who have faithfully attended the meetings and participated both in the discussions and activities of the Sodality during this past year will be permitted a vote in the elections.

many games when they meet the Case Rough Riders at Case.

New opponents on the fifteen game schedule are Akron, Fenn, and Westminster. Out of town matches will be played with Detroit University and Grove City College.

Play Home Games at Nela Park
Site of the Carroll netter's home games will be, as in previous seasons, the Nela Park courts, which are said to be among the best in the city of Cleveland due to their well-kept condition.

Keegan passed into the third round and trounced Grauel. Keegan thus becomes a very possible finalist. Len Pchola moved one step nearer the championship by beating Joe Hoctor.

In the two other second round matches Jack Cooper, the "Boonton Bomber," trimmed Jack Antonucci, 21-11; 21-15, and F. Soltész beat Zaller, 21-17; 16-21; 21-15.

Because of the large number of contestants, Director Bob Whelan requests that students cooperate by contacting their opponents and playing their matches so that Carroll's ping pong champ for 1940 may soon be crowned.

dorm council swings into its spring program.

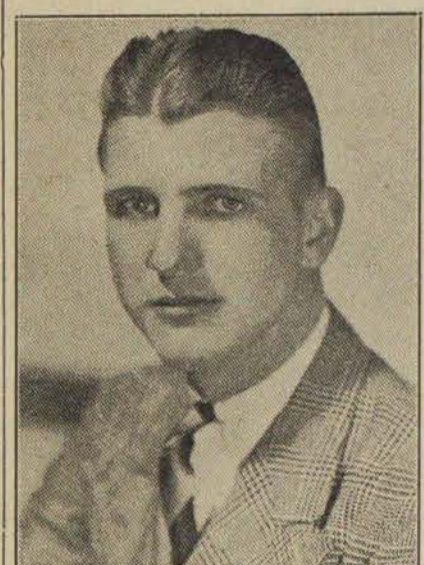

Last Tuesday, the last arrangements were made to form a baseball league. The loop is well on its way under the able direction of Ed Willard, with assistants Jim Conforti and Ed Sheridan. Eight teams were divided by eight captains.

Chicken and all "the fixins" will be the highlight of the annual dormitory picnic to be held on Ascension Thursday: Jack Heffernan, who is also president of the council, is in charge with the committee of Bill Joyce, Ed Willard, and Bob Smith.

On May 10 a dorm dance will be held. Robert Ress is chairman, and his committee includes Jim McCrystal, and Jim Rose.

All residents are asked to pay their dues of fifty cents by April 29 so as to be eligible for the picnic and the awards to be made to the victorious teams in the leagues.

Who's Who at Carroll

Frank Caine
* * * * *
By James L. McCrystal

Frank Caine is one of the very few men at Carroll who was in school when it left the old west side landmark and moved into University Heights. As those men who were out here that memorable first year called themselves "pioneers of '35," Frank is one of the last of them. The fact that Frank has attended Carroll over a period of five years is not any reflection on his scholastic record. In the middle of his sophomore year he was forced to leave school because of his mother's very serious illness.

Frank was born on the west side of Cleveland, just across the street from the old school, on the 16th of February, 1917. He attended St. Patrick's, St. Colman's, and St. Clement's grade school and was graduated from the last-named.

In the fall of 1931, he enrolled at Cathedral Latin High School. At Latin Frank took a very active part in intramural athletics and made the football team, but was forced to quit because of a very bad knee injury which he sustained while practicing. He was also a member of the Sodality for four years.

When classes were opened in the new buildings in the fall of 1935, Carroll was more like an open air arena than it was a college. The cafeteria had no windows and the class rooms had no doors and it seemed as though there were almost as many workmen around as there were students. It was in this combination of factory and school that Frank Caine got his first taste of college life. Upon his arrival at Carroll, Frank decided that it was time that he put his fine voice to some use, so he joined the Glee Club. Father Kiefer has never regretted that fact to this day, because Frank has been one of the mainstays of that organization for five years. Even when he was out of school he continued to practice with the Glee Club and sang two solos in the concert of that year. Upon his return to school Frank joined his present class as a sophomore. He was elected secretary of the Glee Club. In this year he also placed third in the 100-yard dash in the Intramural track meet.

Elected President of Glee Club
In his junior year Frank was re-elected secretary of the Glee Club and treasurer of the Classical Club. He took a very instrumental part in the activities of the Chapel Choir and the Acolytes.

The Glee Club rewarded Frank for his fine work in that organization by electing him president in this, his senior year. Another sidelight on Frank's activities is that he has been a member of the Carroll Union for three years, making him the second oldest man in that organization in years of service. This year Frank has been on quite a few radio programs both as a singer and a speaker.

Athletic Director at St. Anthony's
Aside from his collegiate activities, Frank has found time to become athletic director at St. Anthony's Boys' Home of the west side.

Frank is undecided as to what he will do upon graduation, but he has a decided preference to some phase of radio work. With his fine singing and speaking ability we do think that he will find little difficulty obtaining a position in this field.

Speakers Address Sociology Students

Last Friday night, in C.Y.O. headquarters at Hotel Allerton, Mr. Buchanan, head of the Health Department of this Federal District, which includes seven states, addressed a group of Sociology students from Carroll. His topic was "Adulterated Food and Drugs."

In the course of his speech, he developed four main points: adulteration, misrepresentation of products, laxity of Cleveland's municipal courts, and methods of punishment of offenders.

On Monday of this week, Mr. Marke of the Cleveland Health Department addressed the students during their class. He spoke on "Crime Prevention." He advocated policies of reducing the crime rate by contacting the children and improving their environment with better family conditions, which he called the basis of all life.
