Poetry

Bethany Jewell

Some say it's rhythm and rhyme that matter.
I believe feeling reigns supreme. Like the feeling
you get when you win $2 off a scratch off,
better than nothing but still not enough.
The rush of air cradling a lonely skydiver, the same gust felt by your best friend when he jumped off the bridge,
every atom tingling on the edge of death.
Or is it life?
The drumming of a heart that continues beating. The feeling of waves lapping your feet, so gentle
you forget their roaring power.
A silent scream in a crowded room.
A shout into the abyss. The sickness that took your mother.
The sunlight's soft kiss.
Beauty can't be quantified.
Though known by all it's undefined.
