A World Full of Tomorrow

Alissa Van Dress

Oh, to be a sunflower!
With folds of luscious petals
Speckles of coffee-colored centers
And fields of friends forever.

I remember the bouquet
That was sent that day
Gleaming beyond delay
The next, dying in vain.

They mourned the loss
Of the one who saw
A world of awe
Despite pitfalls

Now, the sunflowers blacken
They billow with sorrow
For the one who needed
A world full of tomorrow.
