M.C.

It was Friday, or
was it Thursday?
You were walking
ten paces ahead and I had stopped to tie
my shoe

We had just graduated and you wanted to say goodbye to the sky blue streets called

home

I ran to catch up
but you were stopped
at the planetarium
off E. Franklin Waiting

under the shadow of the dial's needle
You said you Loved me and I held my Cross

You went to Seattle and I

I'm sorry

Four years gone by
and the air
has changed

the Old Well
spouts proud colors
and the Chapel
on the hill
hoists an ally flag

today I stepped Out on a rainbow crosswalk
and it seemed to fit me nicely
I think you would like it
here
with me
