Centered by faith

The University's new president, John J. Shea, SJ, discusses his agenda, the students and getting acquainted.

James Auriemma

The Carroll News

Though recent, John J. Shea, SJ, is set to become president of John Carroll University. His office still bears signs of his predecessors.

The faculty and staff offices are adorned with the faces of various Jesuits who have held the position since 1916. The paintings that Shea has hung in his office are of Fr. Michael J. Lawlor, one of the early Jesuits who helped establish the school.

“Being a Jesuit teaches you to place the needs of others before your own,” Shea said. “It’s a way of life that informs the way I approach my work.”

JCU serves Cleveland

Project Gold stays strong in its sixth year

Katie Passarelli

The Carroll News

Project Gold, a homebound education program for Cleveland area students, was founded in 1989 by the late Fr. Michael J. Lawlor, SJ.

According to McMillan, the program was created to provide the community with volunteers who really want to make a difference.

"Project Gold was started because there wasn't enough community service for students to get involved in," McMillan said. "It's a way to get these kids involved and to give them a sense of purpose."
Morton illustrates history of women in Cleveland

Geilsten McCarthy Staff Reporter

The first history of Cleveland women to ever be written is compiled by Colleen Hynes, News Editor. "I wanted to try to capture as well as I could, from the newspaper, what were the women's issues and women's history," she said.

The book, published by the Center for Urban and Regional Affairs, is the history of women from the time of the first American settlers through the present day. It is organized around the themes of the women's movement, the role of women in the community, and the impact of economic and political factors on women.

Morton said that the book was written to provide a comprehensive overview of the history of women in Cleveland. "I think it's important to remember the contributions that women have made to our society," she said. "It's important to remember the struggles that they've had to go through to get where they are today."
Team sails into new season

Morton illustrates history of women in Cleveland

Glenne Yonke

Staff Reporter

After a 14-year absence, the National Fall championships, ECU sailing team, is back again. The 14-boat field includes 11 local teams and will be attended by the winds of Covid-19.

Senior, Commooore Kim Schubek, senior, Arnold, and sailing team was one of the participating teams.

William Carroll, senior, attended Carroll. "He went because he wants to participate in the national fall championships."

Eric Version, the team's coach, said, "The team has no coach is due to a lack of unders."

In order to purchase a boat last year, the team had to raise funds. "I've got a coach who coached us," said Arnold.

The series consists of additional J.C.U. Students. "Either in a boat, but sailing is really a sport that requires a lot of my success to," he said.

"I've got a coach who coached us," said Arnold.

"I've got a coach who coached us," said Arnold.

"I've got a coach who coached us," said Arnold.

During Thanksgiving break, the team elected new officers in the organization. "Now everyone is happy with the new officers," said Williams.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.

The participating teams arrive at the hotel, with their boats and shore staff.
Graduate students of the world unite. Lawmakers in 27 states and students demanding a union for teaching assistants in graduate school converged on Olympia, Washington, to be the first to file for forming the Graduate Student Organizing Committee. The students are seeking the right to negotiate with their university's administration for better working conditions.

The students say they face an uphill battle in a state where the university administration has a long history of hostility toward employees. The university's president, a former university president, has said the students are trying to organize to gain control of the university and to undermine the university's corporate governance structure.

The students say they are confident they can win because they have a strong base of support from the broader community. They have already won the support of the American Federation of Teachers, the Service Employees International Union, and the National Education Association.

The students say they are prepared to face any challenges they may encounter. They say they will continue to fight for their rights and to make the university more democratic. They say they will not give up until they win.

The students say they are grateful for the support they have received from their colleagues and friends. They say they are confident they can win because they have a strong base of support from the broader community.

The students say they are prepared to face any challenges they may encounter. They say they will continue to fight for their rights and to make the university more democratic. They say they will not give up until they win.
Yeltsin undermined, threatened by Communist majority

Brian Nash

Russian Communist leaders have demanded a shift to a more moderate policy by President Boris Yeltsin, who is believed to be unstable for Russian politics. The Communist party concedes that it will be a challenge to get a majority of the vote in the presidential elections scheduled for June, but many Russians perceived Yeltsin's weakness earlier, considering him a weak leader who should have been replaced by a more stable figure. The Communist party, led by Gennadi Yavlinsky, is also likely to try to attract voters with a more moderate and realistic foreign policy.

The election is a test for Russian politics, and it is expected to be a tight contest. The Communist party is currently trailing in the polls, but it has the potential to gain support as the campaign heats up. Yeltsin's opponents, including Gennadi Yavlinsky, are poised to challenge him and gain support from the electorate.

The election is a significant test for Russian democracy, with the country's future in the balance. The outcome of the election will determine whether Yeltsin remains in power or whether a new leader emerges to take the country forward. The election is likely to be closely watched by the international community, with many countries concerned about the stability and direction of Russian politics.

For more news and analysis, please visit our website at...
Music

Jan. 26)

theatre students must be 19 years old and over, however only one student composes consists of christopher brown, magnus martensson and music, and is free and open to the public. for showtimes and tickets more informatiOn call 321-3965.

Composers in

shape of a pear

(9:30 p.m. tim othertopic)

ENTERTAINMENT

Shorty, Seinfeld, Shawshank
ON entertainment editors share holiday finds

Art

the Cleveland center for contemporary art's fourth-floor coffee shop, "soda fountain," is now offering a new coffee bar service.

Comedy

the comic relief at the WJU is the John Carroll
special effects admission to productions every saturday night at 8:00 p.m. all performances open with a surprise (unveiling)
from the WJU's comedy club. Reserve tickets by calling the box office at (216) 396-5000.

The Cleveland Press Club presents the Cleveland press club presents the "night of the newspaper winners" dinner and auction. tickets are available at the door.

THE CLEVELAND PRESS CLUB PRESENTS THE "NEWSPAPER WINNERS" DINNER AND AUCTION (TUESDAY, JAN. 22) AT 6 P.M. AT THE CLEVELAND HILTON, 1400 W. CLAYTON AVE., CLEVELAND. RESERVATIONS ARE REQUIRED. CALL 216-569-9500.

Film

Chloe, Davis and merry stocker won't die, a dead, robo cannibal, and a zombified horde of lowlives come together to make a new life in "lady or the beast," which is available on cable at $4.99 in the video store.

Sam Sadt

Amidst a whole new reality of life, a group of friends begins to realize that they are unable to die without some sort of happiness. in "last sam" a happy, smiling gang of old men are forced to deal with the fact that they are dead, and that they are unable to die.

Music

Composers in

shape of a pear

(9:30 p.m. tim othertopic)

Shorty, Seinfeld, Shawshank
ON entertainment editors share holiday finds

Art

the Cleveland center for contemporary art's
fourth-floor coffee shop, "soda fountain," is now offering a new coffee bar service.

Comedy

the comic relief at the WJU is the John Carroll
special effects admission to productions every saturday night at 8:00 p.m. all performances open with a surprise (unveiling)
from the WJU's comedy club. Reserve tickets by calling the box office at (216) 396-5000.

The Cleveland Press Club presents the Cleveland press club presents the "night of the newspaper winners" dinner and auction. tickets are available at the door.

THE CLEVELAND PRESS CLUB PRESENTS THE "NEWSPAPER WINNERS" DINNER AND AUCTION (TUESDAY, JAN. 22) AT 6 P.M. AT THE CLEVELAND HILTON, 1400 W. CLAYTON AVE., CLEVELAND. RESERVATIONS ARE REQUIRED. CALL 216-569-9500.

Film

Chloe, Davis and merry stocker won't die, a dead, robo cannibal, and a zombified horde of lowlives come together to make a new life in "lady or the beast," which is available on cable at $4.99 in the video store.

Sam Sadt

Amidst a whole new reality of life, a group of friends begins to realize that they are unable to die without some sort of happiness. in "last sam" a happy, smiling gang of old men are forced to deal with the fact that they are dead, and that they are unable to die.

Music

Composers in

shape of a pear

(9:30 p.m. tim othertopic)

Shorty, Seinfeld, Shawshank
ON entertainment editors share holiday finds

Art

the Cleveland center for contemporary art's
fourth-floor coffee shop, "soda fountain," is now offering a new coffee bar service.

Comedy

the comic relief at the WJU is the John Carroll
special effects admission to productions every saturday night at 8:00 p.m. all performances open with a surprise (unveiling)
from the WJU's comedy club. Reserve tickets by calling the box office at (216) 396-5000.

The Cleveland Press Club presents the Cleveland press club presents the "night of the newspaper winners" dinner and auction. tickets are available at the door.

THE CLEVELAND PRESS CLUB PRESENTS THE "NEWSPAPER WINNERS" DINNER AND AUCTION (TUESDAY, JAN. 22) AT 6 P.M. AT THE CLEVELAND HILTON, 1400 W. CLAYTON AVE., CLEVELAND. RESERVATIONS ARE REQUIRED. CALL 216-569-9500.

Film

Chloe, Davis and merry stocker won't die, a dead, robo cannibal, and a zombified horde of lowlives come together to make a new life in "lady or the beast," which is available on cable at $4.99 in the video store.

Sam Sadt

Amidst a whole new reality of life, a group of friends begins to realize that they are unable to die without some sort of happiness. in "last sam" a happy, smiling gang of old men are forced to deal with the fact that they are dead, and that they are unable to die.

Music

Composers in

shape of a pear

(9:30 p.m. tim othertopic)

Shorty, Seinfeld, Shawshank
ON entertainment editors share holiday finds

Art

the Cleveland center for contemporary art's
fourth-floor coffee shop, "soda fountain," is now offering a new coffee bar service.

Comedy

the comic relief at the WJU is the John Carroll
special effects admission to productions every saturday night at 8:00 p.m. all performances open with a surprise (unveiling)
from the WJU's comedy club. Reserve tickets by calling the box office at (216) 396-5000.

The Cleveland Press Club presents the Cleveland press club presents the "night of the newspaper winners" dinner and auction. tickets are available at the door.

THE CLEVELAND PRESS CLUB PRESENTS THE "NEWSPAPER WINNERS" DINNER AND AUCTION (TUESDAY, JAN. 22) AT 6 P.M. AT THE CLEVELAND HILTON, 1400 W. CLAYTON AVE., CLEVELAND. RESERVATIONS ARE REQUIRED. CALL 216-569-9500.

Film

Chloe, Davis and merry stocker won't die, a dead, robo cannibal, and a zombified horde of lowlives come together to make a new life in "lady or the beast," which is available on cable at $4.99 in the video store.

Sam Sadt

Amidst a whole new reality of life, a group of friends begins to realize that they are unable to die without some sort of happiness. in "last sam" a happy, smiling gang of old men are forced to deal with the fact that they are dead, and that they are unable to die.

Music

Composers in

shape of a pear

(9:30 p.m. tim othertopic)

Shorty, Seinfeld, Shawshank
ON entertainment editors share holiday finds

Art

the Cleveland center for contemporary art's
fourth-floor coffee shop, "soda fountain," is now offering a new coffee bar service.

Comedy

the comic relief at the WJU is the John Carroll
special effects admission to productions every saturday night at 8:00 p.m. all performances open with a surprise (unveiling)
from the WJU's comedy club. Reserve tickets by calling the box office at (216) 396-5000.

The Cleveland Press Club presents the Cleveland press club presents the "night of the newspaper winners" dinner and auction. tickets are available at the door.

THE CLEVELAND PRESS CLUB PRESENTS THE "NEWSPAPER WINNERS" DINNER AND AUCTION (TUESDAY, JAN. 22) AT 6 P.M. AT THE CLEVELAND HILTON, 1400 W. CLAYTON AVE., CLEVELAND. RESERVATIONS ARE REQUIRED. CALL 216-569-9500.

Film

Chloe, Davis and merry stocker won't die, a dead, robo cannibal, and a zombified horde of lowlives come together to make a new life in "lady or the beast," which is available on cable at $4.99 in the video store.

Sam Sadt

Amidst a whole new reality of life, a group of friends begins to realize that they are unable to die without some sort of happiness. in "last sam" a happy, smiling gang of old men are forced to deal with the fact that they are dead, and that they are unable to die.

Music

Composers in

shape of a pear

(9:30 p.m. tim othertopic)

Shorty, Seinfeld, Shawshank
ON entertainment editors share holiday finds

Art

the Cleveland center for contemporary art's
fourth-floor coffee shop, "soda fountain," is now offering a new coffee bar service.

Comedy

the comic relief at the WJU is the John Carroll
special effects admission to productions every saturday night at 8:00 p.m. all performances open with a surprise (unveiling)
from the WJU's comedy club. Reserve tickets by calling the box office at (216) 396-5000.

The Cleveland Press Club presents the Cleveland press club presents the "night of the newspaper winners" dinner and auction. tickets are available at the door.

THE CLEVELAND PRESS CLUB PRESENTS THE "NEWSPAPER WINNERS" DINNER AND AUCTION (TUESDAY, JAN. 22) AT 6 P.M. AT THE CLEVELAND HILTON, 1400 W. CLAYTON AVE., CLEVELAND. RESERVATIONS ARE REQUIRED. CALL 216-569-9500.

Film

Chloe, Davis and merry stocker won't die, a dead, robo cannibal, and a zombified horde of lowlives come together to make a new life in "lady or the beast," which is available on cable at $4.99 in the video store.

Sam Sadt

Amidst a whole new reality of life, a group of friends begins to realize that they are unable to die without some sort of happiness. in "last sam" a happy, smiling gang of old men are forced to deal with the fact that they are dead, and that they are unable to die.
shorty, Seinfeld, Shawshank
ON entertainment editors share holiday finds

Karen Ober
Entertainment editor

The holiday break is the time for some serious planning. That's because there's a lot to do in the month of December. With some advance preparation, you can make sure you have a smooth and successful holiday season.

For example, if you're planning a party, start by creating a guest list. This will help you determine how much food and drink you need to purchase. You can also use this list to plan activities and games for the guests.

Next, consider your decorations. Do you want to have a traditional Christmas tree, or are you looking for something more contemporary? Whatever your style, make sure you have enough decorations to fill your space.

Another important aspect of planning is the menu. What kind of food are you serving? Are you planning a sit-down dinner or a buffet? Make sure you have enough dishes to accommodate your guests.

Finally, don't forget about the entertainment. Do you want to have music or a DJ? What about games or activities for the kids? Plan ahead so you can make the most of your holiday season.

With some careful planning, you can ensure that your holiday season is a success. So, start planning now and make the most of the festive season.
Women’s hoops approaches .500 with win

Steven R. Costalard

The John Carroll University women’s basketball team played a tough game in a difficult environment on Saturday. The Blue Streaks, who are currently 4-2 overall and 1-2 in the OAC, were able to pull out a hard-fought 69-63 victory over the Blue Demons of Marietta College on Saturday in the Don Shula Sports Center. The victory moved the Blue Streaks to 5-3 overall and 4-0 in the OAC, giving them a two-game lead in the conference standings.

The Blue Demons were led by forward Ashley Jones, who finished with 13 points and 10 rebounds. The Blue Demons were also led by guard Rachel Collins, who finished with 12 points and 5 assists. The Blue Demons shot 40% from the field and 35% from three-point range.

The Blue Streaks were led by senior guard Morgan Taylor, who finished with 20 points and 7 assists. The Blue Streaks were also led by guard Molly Brenlove, who finished with 15 points and 7 rebounds. The Blue Streaks shot 45% from the field and 40% from three-point range.

The Blue Streaks’ defense was key in the victory, as they held the Blue Demons to just 35% from the field and 15% from three-point range.

The Blue Streaks will next face off against the Blue Lions of Otterbein University on Wednesday in the Don Shula Sports Center. The Blue Lions are currently 4-3 overall and 2-2 in the OAC.

Men’s b-ball drops to Marietta, 78-56, in first-place tie

Erik Roland

Senior forward Steven Prouty scored 17 points and grabbed 15 rebounds as the Blue Streaks fell to the Blue Demons of Marietta College, 78-56, on Saturday in the Don Shula Sports Center.

The Blue Streaks were led by Prouty, who finished with 17 points and 15 rebounds. The Blue Streaks were also led by guard John Henry, who finished with 16 points and 5 assists. The Blue Streaks shot 44% from the field and 34% from three-point range.

The Blue Demons were led by guard Brandon Cooper, who finished with 26 points and 4 assists. The Blue Demons were also led by forward Matt Thomas, who finished with 10 points and 8 rebounds. The Blue Demons shot 48% from the field and 40% from three-point range.

The Blue Streaks’ defense was key in the loss, as they held the Blue Demons to just 38% from the field and 25% from three-point range.

The Blue Streaks will next face off against the Blue Lions of Otterbein University on Wednesday in the Don Shula Sports Center. The Blue Lions are currently 4-3 overall and 2-2 in the OAC.
SPORTS
The Carroll News, January 25, 1996

Women's basketball season still alive
Kevin Bernstein

The John Carroll University women's basketball team picked up two key conference wins last week as they look to raise their record to .500 in the Ohio Athletic Conference.

Unfortunately for the Blue Streaks, the seniors will be playing their final home contests this weekend. The seniors have given this program a solid foundation upon which to build this past season.

"It's always fun to see seniors, especially those that have been here for a few years," said Matti McFarland, senior guard Kristin Mihalic. "We've been through a lot together and we still want to finish strong." The seniors will play the last home game this weekend against the Baldwin Wallace Blue Streaks.

The Blue Streaks fall only one game behind the Blue Streaks in the OAC, 5-0 to 4-1.

Returning from an injury, Kevin S. Hoffman, junior forward, and senior forward Molly Brenlove are poised to return to the starting lineup.

"We're not working the defense as good and making ugly things happen," said Hoffman. "But we're going to play better.

The Blue Streaks made an attempt to conquer the Blue Streaks with a 5-0 to 4-1 record. The Blue Streaks' defense was responsible for the Blue Streaks' 37 points scored in the game.

The Blue Streaks scored 17 points on the Blue Streaks' three-pointers by sophomore guard Kris Mihalic.

The Blue Streaks' defense was responsible for the Blue Streaks' 37 points scored in the game. The Blue Streaks' defense was responsible for the Blue Streaks' 37 points scored in the game.
To buy or not to buy: The JCU Book game

It's nothing new, really. People have been complaining about the prices in the JCU Bookstore as long as there have been students at Carroll University. Bookstores as long as there have been students at Caroll...
The Carroll News, January 25, 1996

Views / Editorial

To buy or not to buy: The JCU Book game

It's nothing new, really. People have been complaining about the prices at the Jack and Jill Bookstore ever since the bookstore first opened its doors. Thankfully, the recent tuition increase has meant more money going into the bookstores' pockets. But that doesn't mean we have to put up with the prices.

Our own worst enemies

What is a feminism is a question that many people ask themselves. Why do we need to fight for women's rights? Why do we need to fight for anything? These are questions that many people ask themselves.

The problem is deeper than most people realize. The cost of this problem is staggering. But the cost of ignoring it is even greater.

The price of textbooks is rising at an alarming rate. This is not just a problem for college students, but for anyone who needs to buy books. The problem is complex, and there are many different factors that contribute to it.

The most obvious factor is the cost of production. Books are expensive to produce, and the cost of production is only going to increase. This is not just a problem for bookstores, but for the companies that produce books. The cost of production is only going to increase. This is not just a problem for bookstores, but for the companies that produce books.

Another factor is the cost of distribution. Books are distributed through retailers and wholesalers, which add their own markups to the price. This is not just a problem for bookstores, but for the companies that distribute books. The cost of distribution is only going to increase. This is not just a problem for bookstores, but for the companies that distribute books.

Finally, there is the cost of marketing. Books are marketed through advertising and promotions, which add their own markups to the price. This is not just a problem for bookstores, but for the companies that market books. The cost of marketing is only going to increase. This is not just a problem for bookstores, but for the companies that market books.

In conclusion, the problem of textbook prices is complex, and there is no easy solution. But we can start by raising awareness of the issue. Let's work together to find a solution.
Witness to Accident? Look­ ing for two Good Samaritans who assisted after auto­ pedestrian accident at Delano and Minn­ amar on Dec. 16, 1994. Please call Arty, McClean at 661-0032.

Babysitter needed (experi­ enced). Own transportation. University Heights. Call Rebeka at 961-1942.

Babysitter needed. Ener­ getic and playful for 3-year­ old. Very flexible hours and transportation. Daycare experience. Taking trips and going to the park in the springtime. No cleaning or cooking. Inquire also about summer babysitting jobs. Please call 365-6306.

Tour. Please visit University Heights.

12th Annual Lucrezia Culicchia Award for Teaching Excellence

College of Arts and Sciences

John Carroll University

NOMINATIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED FROM JANUARY 16 TO FEBRUARY 22, 1996, for the Lucrezia Culicchia Award for Teaching Excellence. Nominations should include a statement and/or documentation that the nominee has made a distinct difference in the teaching climate of the College of Arts and Sciences in such areas as: model classroom teaching, campus leadership on teaching issues, pioneering teaching methodology, creative course development and/or instructional support. The award will be presented at the faculty meeting of the College of Arts and Sciences during the fall term.

Nominations should include a letter of nomination; letters from at least three John Carroll University faculty members who have taken at least one course with the nominee; and letters from two faculty colleagues. Also, letters of support from alumni would be welcome. Nominations should be submitted to the Office of the Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, no later than Friday, February 22, 1996.