RA found intoxicated while on duty

Tom O'Keene
Assistant / Features Editor

A 19-year-old resident assistant was sent to his room by the dorm's RA during the weekend. The RA was found intoxicated in a dormitory room. The RA admitted to drinking and was removed from his position.

According to the resident advisor, the RA was found sleeping in his room on Saturday night. The RA was later taken to the dorm's police station and charged with disorderly conduct.

The RA has been suspended from his position and is under investigation by the university's Office of Student Affairs.

SU proposes to change tenure process

The Student Senate unanimously passed a bill to recommend the proposed changes to the university's tenure process to the university administration.

The bill calls for the creation of a new committee to review faculty tenure decisions. The committee would be comprised of faculty members, students, and staff members.

The bill also calls for the appointment of an independent reviewer to oversee the tenure process.

Remembering the past

The Carroll News features articles on the history of the university, including events and figures that have shaped the institution.

Part of the AIDS quill was on display in Saint Francis Chapel during AIDS Awareness Week.

Melissa Ylka
Features Editor

St. Patrick's Day page 4

Up Close and Personal

Pfeiffer and Redford heated up the big screen, page 6

Softball, Tennis, Baseball, Track

Support group examines social etigme and personal issues surrounding alternative lifestyles

Editor

The Carroll News

Volume 93 Number 19 March 14, 1996

Assistant Features
Phone registration available again

Basic training to begin April 1st. It is St. Patrick's Day on Friday, March 17th. The ROTC office will be open for registration. "Training that gives you opportunities and helps build self-confidence are worth your time," said Assistant News Editor Cherie Skoczen. Students registering for summer classes on Monday have the opportunity to do so by answering the phone, said Carla Byrnes, administrative assistant.

If students do not answer the phone, it will be left unanswered, Ms. Byrnes said. For the students who answer the phone, they will not be able to register for classes.

"We could be working with spring and summer classes," Byrnes said. "We will be registering for fall and winter classes as well.

The current Student Union executive board met on Tuesday. The new executive board will be inaugurated next week. The board met to discuss Student Union rules for offices in next year's sophomore, junior and senior years. The rules are to be presented to the university for their approval.

Cherie Skoczen
Assistant News Editor

Breast cancer screening for employees is available at James. The screening is available to employed women up to the age of 40. The screening is available for employees who are employed for at least six months. The screening is available on a voluntary basis.

The current Student Union executive board met on Tuesday. The new executive board will be inaugurated next week. The board met to discuss Student Union rules for offices in next year's sophomore, junior and senior years. The rules are to be presented to the university for their approval.

Cherie Skoczen
Assistant News Editor

Breast cancer screening for employees is available at James. The screening is available to employed women up to the age of 40. The screening is available for employees who are employed for at least six months. The screening is available on a voluntary basis.

The current Student Union executive board met on Tuesday. The new executive board will be inaugurated next week. The board met to discuss Student Union rules for offices in next year's sophomore, junior and senior years. The rules are to be presented to the university for their approval.

Cherie Skoczen
Assistant News Editor

Breast cancer screening for employees is available at James. The screening is available to employed women up to the age of 40. The screening is available for employees who are employed for at least six months. The screening is available on a voluntary basis.

The current Student Union executive board met on Tuesday. The new executive board will be inaugurated next week. The board met to discuss Student Union rules for offices in next year's sophomore, junior and senior years. The rules are to be presented to the university for their approval.

Cherie Skoczen
Assistant News Editor

Breast cancer screening for employees is available at James. The screening is available to employed women up to the age of 40. The screening is available for employees who are employed for at least six months. The screening is available on a voluntary basis.

The current Student Union executive board met on Tuesday. The new executive board will be inaugurated next week. The board met to discuss Student Union rules for offices in next year's sophomore, junior and senior years. The rules are to be presented to the university for their approval.

Cherie Skoczen
Assistant News Editor

Breast cancer screening for employees is available at James. The screening is available to employed women up to the age of 40. The screening is available for employees who are employed for at least six months. The screening is available on a voluntary basis.
Phone registration available again

Cherie DiFranco, associate director ofadmissions

Students registering for future classes on line have the opportunity to do so using a new phone, called ROTC, and electronic registration. They have been meeting classes without the phone number, and ROTC offers hands-on leadership training for students.

A student named Andrew was asked about SPRING examination registration for students, and ROTC offers hands-on leadership training for students. ROTC offers hands-on leadership training for students.

Two pats of lndians' Opening Day tickets will be available, and there are tickets available at the Student Life Center on the first floor of the Residence Hall. First prize will be $100 and third prize will be $25. It is sponsored by Student -in-Pot and the Counseling Center.

"We're looking forward to the future with confidence in our ability to be successful," DiFranco said. "We're looking forward to the future with confidence in our ability to be successful.

"We're looking forward to the future with confidence in our ability to be successful."
History revealed and festivities planned for St. Patrick's Day

Sara Kaman

As St. Patrick’s Day approaches its sixty-seventh celebration, Irish-Americans are gearing up for what is considered as one of the biggest celebrations of Irish culture outside of Ireland itself. While the Irish have long been associated with beer, music, dancing, and a love for the land, the celebration of St. Patrick’s Day is not only about tradition but also about honoring the life and legacy of the saint himself. The day is marked by parades, festivals, and various cultural activities that bring the Irish community together.

St. Patrick’s Day is not just a celebration of Irish heritage but also a way to honor the contributions of the Irish people to society. The day is celebrated with enthusiasm in different parts of the world, especially in regions with a significant Irish-American population. It is a day to remember the history of the Irish people and their impact on the world.

For many, St. Patrick’s Day is a way to reconnect with roots and traditions. It is a day to share stories and pass along cultural heritage from one generation to the next. It is a day to celebrate the diversity and richness of Irish culture.

The celebration of St. Patrick’s Day began in the United States in the late 1800s, and since then, it has become a major event in Irish-American culture. The day is marked by parades in cities across the country, where people dress in green, drink beer, and enjoy Irish music and food.

The significance of St. Patrick’s Day lies not only in its cultural importance but also in its role as a way to bring communities together. It is a day to celebrate diversity and inclusion, and it is a reminder that despite differences, we can come together to celebrate the common threads that bind us.

St. Patrick’s Day is not just a celebration of the past but also an opportunity to make a positive impact on the future. It is a day to remember the importance of education and to strive for a better society.

In summary, St. Patrick’s Day is a day of celebration, community, and the continuation of a rich cultural tradition. It is a day to remember the importance of heritage and to honor the contributions of the Irish people to society.
History revealed and festivities planned for St. Patrick's Day

The Carroll News, March 14, 1996

Features

History revealed and festivities planned for St. Patrick's Day

Sara Kalman

As St. Patrick's Day approaches, one can choose to eat corned beef and cabbage, parade, and drink a pint of Irish ale. Patrick was born in what is modern-day Ireland in the year 405. Today, Ireland celebrates its cultural hero with parades and parties all over the country but it is not one of the five countries in the British Isles. The other four countries are Scotland, northern Ireland, and Wales.

Magazines throughout the world have been telling stories of St. Patrick's Day ever since the 18th century. The first known account of the holiday was written in 1737 by John O'Mahony. It was during this time that most Irish people were of the working class, and St. Patrick's Day became a day for the workers to take a break from their jobs and celebrate.

There has been some talk of St. Patrick's Day becoming a national holiday in Ireland, but the Irish government has not yet made a decision. For now, the day is celebrated with parties, parades, and other traditional activities.

Staff Reporter

Sara Kalman

St. Brigid, Ireland's patron saint of learning and healing, was born in 451. She is also associated with the Irish saint Patrick, and her feast day was celebrated on March 1, 1996. St. Brigid is also known for her connection to the Irish language, and her feast day is celebrated with parades and parties all over the world.

In the United States, St. Patrick's Day is celebrated with parades and parties all over the country. In New York City, the parade is one of the largest in the world and attracts thousands of people each year. In Boston, the parade is held in the morning, and parades are also held in other cities around the country.

Although the day was originally celebrated by the Irish, it has grown in popularity across the globe. In addition to parades and parties, St. Patrick's Day is also celebrated with traditional Irish music and dance. In some places, people wear green clothing and accessories to show their support for the holiday.

The day is also a time to reflect on the influence of Irish culture on the world. Irish immigrants have helped to shape the United States and have contributed to the development of the country in a variety of ways. St. Patrick's Day is a time to celebrate their contributions.

In the United States, St. Patrick's Day is known as a time to reflect on the influence of Irish culture on the world. Irish immigrants have helped to shape the United States and have contributed to the development of the country in a variety of ways. St. Patrick's Day is a time to celebrate their contributions.
Coming Attractions

Entertainment

Up Close has personal feel

Sam Sady

Art

Pam Peraseo, associate professor of dance, presented her class through the series of 15 short, 10-minute performances that make up the work called "Dance in Space: a Journey." The dance is a collaborative effort between her and her students, who work together to create and perform in a variety of settings.

Comedy

The Improv on Main Street (877-808) has a lively and energetic atmosphere.

Film

Too Much Touch: Touch Me, from the Cleveland Playhouse, features a cast of experienced actors, including a popular local comedian. The film is a humorous and heartwarming story about a young man who discovers his true calling in life.

Music

Tina Turner's new album, "What's Love Got to Do With It," is set to release next month. Turner, who is known for her powerful vocals and energetic stage presence, promises an electrifying performance.

Theatre

Cleveland Playhouse presents "The Sound of Music," a classic musical based on the story of the von Trapp family. The cast features både established and up-and-coming performers.

Complimentary Drinks for Ladies 9p.m.-12a.m.

The Basement

1078 Old River Road on the East Bank of the Flats

Courtesy of River Street Productions
Music

A gala opening night is not an easy one. A gala opening night for a musical is not a cakewalk. A gala opening night for the musical ‘Phantom of the Opera’ at the Palace Theatre in Cleveland is a challenge. The production has been a long time in the making, and the city is ready to see what has been created.

The musical, which premiered in 1986 in London, is based on the novel by Gaston Leroux. The story follows the life of a young woman named Christine Daaé, who is discovered by the Phantom of the Opera, a mysterious and feared figure who lives in the Paris Opera House. The Phantom falls in love with Christine and seeks to win her heart.

The production features a cast of talented performers, including Phantom singers from the world-famous company at the Theatre Royal Drury Lane in London. The cast includes soprano Angela Hewitt as Christine, baritone Richard Le Parmentier as the Phantom, and tenor John Partridge as Raoul.

The Phantom of the Opera is played by the incomparable Ian Holm, who has been associated with the role in various productions around the world. Holm’s performance is a treat for Phantom fans, as he brings the character to life with a mix of menace and romance.

The music of ‘Phantom of the Opera’ is composed by Andrew Lloyd Webber, with lyrics by Richard Stilgoe and Alain Boublil. The score features some of the most iconic songs of the 20th century, including ‘All I Ask of You’ and ‘The Music of the Night’.

‘Phantom of the Opera’ was originally a London West End production, and the current North American tour is the largest and most lavish production ever seen on the road. The set design and costumes are stunning, and the production values are top-notch.

The opening night gala is a grand affair, with a red carpet, celebrities, and a sold-out audience. The energy is electric as the curtain rises and the music begins to play. The audience is captivated by the performance, and the applause is thunderous.

‘Phantom of the Opera’ is a timeless classic, and this production is one of the best to date. The cast and crew have worked tirelessly to bring this production to life, and their hard work has paid off. ‘Phantom of the Opera’ is a must-see for Phantom fans and theatre enthusiasts alike.

Cleveland, OH,
March 15, 2016

Entertainment

Up Close has personal feel

Sam Sadler

Assistant to the Managing Editor

Renaissance is the latest move for the music world. One of the most successful acts of the 20th century, Renaissance, is back with a new album, ‘Phantom of the Opera: The Musical’. The album features the original score, with new arrangements by the band’s lead singer, Elena Santer.,

The album, which was released on March 15, features a mix of orchestral and electronic elements, creating a unique and captivating sound. The album’s opening track, ‘The Music of the Night’, is a powerful and emotional piece, setting the tone for the rest of the album.

Sparks fly as the Phantom challenges Christine, who is torn between her love for the Phantom and her desire to be a true singer. The album features passionate duets between the Phantom and Christine, as well as dynamic and powerful solos.

The album also features a new version of ‘All I Ask of You’, which is one of the most beloved songs from the original show. The new arrangement is an elegant and sophisticated mix of classical and modern elements, creating a timeless and enduring piece.

‘Phantom of the Opera: The Musical’ is a must-listen for anyone who loves the original show, or for anyone who is new to the world of Renaissance. The album is a beautiful and moving tribute to the timeless magic of the Phantom of the Opera.
Men's tennis starts season with three losses

The Blue Streaks were ranked No. 2 by the Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC) and No. 1 in the nation in singles and No. 3 in doubles. Coach Greg Debeljak said, “We felt strong and proved that on the court against the first two weekend opponents.”

The Blue Streaks, however, had some of their young players perform well, including Michael Babinec and freshmen Lyle Biggs and Michigan State's Joe Bell. Babinec, who had previously played at Hope College, was a second team All-OAC selection and was ranked No. 2 in the nation in singles and No. 3 in doubles. Biggs and Bell were both ranked in the top 10 in singles and doubles.

By placing fourth in the long jump, finishing fifth in the 5,000-meter run and placing third in the 800-meter run, the Blue Streaks next meet against the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill on Saturday morning, then finish the indoor season with a record of 3-0.

Baseball goes 3-4 on Florida trip

The Blue Streaks went 3-4 on their Florida trip, winning two games against the St. Petersburg Saints and losing three against the Miami Dade Junior College.

The Blue Streaks dropped their first game to the Saints 9-0, but bounced back to win the second game 12-3. In the third game, they faced the Saints again and won 10-5. However, their winning streak ended in the fourth game when they lost to the Saints 10-2.

The Blue Streaks then faced the Miami Dade Junior College and lost two games to them. In the first game, the Blue Streaks were defeated 7-4. In the second game, they lost 10-2.

The Blue Streaks next meet the University of Miami on March 21st, at Coral Gables, Florida.

Hope College ends men's basketball's dream season

Hope College ends men's basketball's dream season after losing to the University of Michigan-Dearborn 78-72 in the final game of the OAC Tournament.

The Blue Streaks had a great season after losing in the first OAC Tournament. They finished in second place in the conference and went on to win the OAC regular season championship. However, they were unable to repeat their success in the tournament.

The team's dream season was cut short by the loss to the University of Michigan-Dearborn. The Blue Streaks had a great season after losing in the first OAC Tournament. They finished in second place in the conference and went on to win the OAC regular season championship. However, they were unable to repeat their success in the tournament.

The team's dream season was cut short by the loss to the University of Michigan-Dearborn. The Blue Streaks had a great season after losing in the first OAC Tournament. They finished in second place in the conference and went on to win the OAC regular season championship. However, they were unable to repeat their success in the tournament.

The team's dream season was cut short by the loss to the University of Michigan-Dearborn. The Blue Streaks had a great season after losing in the first OAC Tournament. They finished in second place in the conference and went on to win the OAC regular season championship. However, they were unable to repeat their success in the tournament.

The team's dream season was cut short by the loss to the University of Michigan-Dearborn. The Blue Streaks had a great season after losing in the first OAC Tournament. They finished in second place in the conference and went on to win the OAC regular season championship. However, they were unable to repeat their success in the tournament.

The team's dream season was cut short by the loss to the University of Michigan-Dearborn. The Blue Streaks had a great season after losing in the first OAC Tournament. They finished in second place in the conference and went on to win the OAC regular season championship. However, they were unable to repeat their success in the tournament.

The team's dream season was cut short by the loss to the University of Michigan-Dearborn. The Blue Streaks had a great season after losing in the first OAC Tournament. They finished in second place in the conference and went on to win the OAC regular season championship. However, they were unable to repeat their success in the tournament.

The team's dream season was cut short by the loss to the University of Michigan-Dearborn. The Blue Streaks had a great season after losing in the first OAC Tournament. They finished in second place in the conference and went on to win the OAC regular season championship. However, they were unable to repeat their success in the tournament.

The team's dream season was cut short by the loss to the University of Michigan-Dearborn. The Blue Streaks had a great season after losing in the first OAC Tournament. They finished in second place in the conference and went on to win the OAC regular season championship. However, they were unable to repeat their success in the tournament.

The team's dream season was cut short by the loss to the University of Michigan-Dearborn. The Blue Streaks had a great season after losing in the first OAC Tournament. They finished in second place in the conference and went on to win the OAC regular season championship. However, they were unable to repeat their success in the tournament.

The team's dream season was cut short by the loss to the University of Michigan-Dearborn. The Blue Streaks had a great season after losing in the first OAC Tournament. They finished in second place in the conference and went on to win the OAC regular season championship. However, they were unable to repeat their success in the tournament.

The team's dream season was cut short by the loss to the University of Michigan-Dearborn. The Blue Streaks had a great season after losing in the first OAC Tournament. They finished in second place in the conference and went on to win the OAC regular season championship. However, they were unable to repeat their success in the tournament.
Men's tennis starts season with three losses

Brian Murphy

Staff Reporter

The Ohio University of men's tennis team has started its season with three losses. The team was defeated by the University of Miami (Ohio) 4-0, followed by a loss to OBU 3-2 and finally a loss to Miami (Ohio) 4-0. The team is currently looking to improve their performance and build upon their past successes.

Baseball goes 3-4 on Florida trip

Kevin Barnhard

Staff Reporter

The University of Ohio baseball team went to Florida and looked to solidify their position in the national rankings. The team went 3-4 on the trip, with two losses to Florida State and one to Miami. The team is currently working on building their season momentum as they move forward.

Softball trip nets two wins

Mary O'Connell

Staff Reporter

The Blue Streaks went to the Methodist College Tournament and came away with two wins. They defeated Hope College 4-1 and Denison University 1-0. The team is currently looking to build on their momentum and start their season strong.

Sports

John Carroll University track and field team started their season with three losses. They lost to University of Miami (Ohio), the Ohio State University, and University of Akron. The team is currently looking to improve their performance and build upon their past successes.

Track and field team starts season with three losses

Shannon Sullivan

Staff Reporter

The Ohio University of men's track and field team has started their season with three losses. They lost to the University of Miami (Ohio), the Ohio State University, and University of Akron. The team is currently working on building their season momentum as they move forward.
Do you know what month it is?

For many of us, the last time we may have thought about women's rights and the women's suffrage movement was when we were in the fifth or sixth grade, when we studied people like Susan B. Anthony and Amelia Earhart.

And while many of us may logically acknowledge that women's rights are enshrined in society's standards just as much as are blacks, Hispanics, etc., many of us do not think of women's rights when we hear the word "minority." In this 2000s age of political correctness, many people are reluctant to talk about women's rights, thinking that they are still far from being treated as equals to men. People who feel they deify "radical feminists" and therefore prefer to sweep this issue under the rug.

The truth of the matter is that the majority of the women in America do not fit what many define as a "radical feminist," and are simply working (or staying at home) women trying to improve their treatment in society.

Aside from the sexual discrimination that occurs on a personal, private level everyday, a major area of gender inequality is the workplace. Where anyone wants to admit it, many people are either ignorant, or simply choose to ignore the fact that women are discriminated against in the workplace.

Unfortunately, many women in the workplace are still working under conditions that refer to the 19th century. According to the Glass Ceiling Commission established by the U.S. Department of Labor, the total number of senior executives that are women in corporate America is approximately 2,000,000, while 36 million women make up 45 percent of the American workforce.

So, how can we ever pretend to be ignorant of this when women are a working predominantly as women's History Month.

So, how can we ever pretend to be ignorant of this when women are a working predominantly as women's History Month.

So, how can we ever pretend to be ignorant of this when women are a working predominantly as women's History Month.

So, how can we ever pretend to be ignorant of this when women are a working predominantly as women's History Month.

So, how can we ever pretend to be ignorant of this when women are a working predominantly as women's History Month.

So, how can we ever pretend to be ignorant of this when women are a working predominantly as women's History Month.
Do you know what month it is?

For many of us, the last time we may have thought about women's rights and the women's suffrage movement was during the 4th of July. However, women's rights are far from being a solved issue, even in plain old-fashioned statistics. Most people admit it, but many people either ignore, or are not aware of these groups of people not only during their design...
Part Time - Driver woman to doctor appointments and help with errands. Flexible hours. Call 291-8774.

Tutor needed: 2 hours a day. Excellent pay. For more information call (216) 397-5560.

Sailboat For Sale: Apollo sailboat 16 ft., 2 sails w/trailer. All in excellent condition. Capacity 2-4, $2,000 starting. 050 (216) 343-4870 5-70 pm.

Paid Marketing Internship: Represent Eastpak, pack manufacturer, in Detroit this summer. Local interviews during March/April. After March 1 at 617-292-4020, fax 617-292-8928. Fax resumes. Must have own transportation.

Sales Rep Wanted: Campus sales rep wanted for "Bad Frog" merchandise. Their Sweats, Tees, Posters and other goodies are sweeping the country. Call Bob at 831-8346 in the evening.

JOB AVAILABLE: NANNY WANTED for third grade girl just minutes from JCU. MUST have reliable transportation. Hours: 7:00 AM - 3:00 PM with some additional hours for running errands at your convenience. Good pay, nice people, great perks! Possibly for summer employment also. Call Vince Garman 963-5520.

Seeking Experienced Sitter: Baby-sitter needed for 2 yr. or 10 month infants. Leave a message. 1767. I admit it, I go to Certs addicts anonymous, sorry to say.

Health-conscious, energetic individuals needed for rapidly expanding firm. Flexible hours/training. 442-1767.

OSCAR NOSTALGIA

LADIES NIGHT
THURSDAY

DJ CHRIS GREEN
THE DUKE

BEST TANLINE COMPETITION
1st Place
A TRIP FOR TWO TO THE BAHAMAS

SAT & SUN
ST. PATRICK'S PARTY
ALL WEEKEND LONG
SUNDAY

BUDLIGHT GIRLS

For more information on becoming an Officer in the United States Marine Corps, see Captain Reynolds at the RecPlex from 10:30am to 2:00pm on March 15, 1996, or call 1-800-843-3771.